TOURNAMENT FORMAT

The tournament is a standard 72-hole stroke play format.

The AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am is the only tournament on the PGA TOUR in which amateur partners play through the final day if, as a pro-am team, they make the cut.

The first three days of the tournament are played simultaneously over three courses, Pebble Beach Golf Links, Spyglass Hill Golf Course and Monterey Peninsula Country Club Shore Course. Teams rotate each of the three days with the final round played the fourth day at Pebble Beach.

The final round is cut to approximately 25 low teams (no ties) and 60 low professionals and ties.

CHRONICLE OF MAJOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

There have been six professional major championships played at Pebble Beach - the U.S. Open Championship in 1972, 1982, 1992, 2000 and 2010, and the PGA Championship in 1977. Pebble Beach has hosted the U.S. Amateur four times - 1929, 1947, 1961 and 1999.

Jack Nicklaus won the first U.S. Open played at Pebble Beach in 1972, claiming the third of his four U.S. Open titles.

One of the most electrifying shots in championship golf history helped Tom Watson claim the U.S. Open at Pebble Beach in 1982. Watson came to the 71st hole, a par three, tied with Nicklaus. Watson missed the green with his tee shot as Nicklaus completed play at 4-under 284. But Watson's short, downhill chip shot from heavy rough rolled into the hole. He went on to birdie the 18th to secure a two-shot victory.

Tiger Woods spreadeagled the field in 2000, capturing the 100th U.S. Open by 15 strokes at Pebble Beach. He shot a 12-under-par 272 on a par-71 course.

In 2010, Graham McDowell of Northern Ireland posted an even-par 284 to become the first European winner of the Championship since England's Tony Jacklin in 1970.

In 1977, Lanny Wadkins won the only PGA Championship to be played at Pebble Beach. Wadkins won a playoff with Gene Littler by parring the third extra hole.

Pebble Beach again will be the center of the golf universe in 2019, when it hosts the U.S. Open Championship for a sixth time, in conjunction with the resort's Centennial Celebration (1919-2019). Also, the U.S. Amateur is to return for a fifth time in 2018.

Following is a brief history of significant tournaments played at Pebble Beach:

THE LEGEND AND THE LORE

Spanning over half a century, the Pebble Beach Pro-Am has undergone changes in latitude and changes in attitude. But the core of the tournament remains not only the exceptional golf by the world's best players, but also the lore surrounding each yearly winter extravaganza.

It is the pull of this lore that helps to account for the tournament's continued popularity. Part sporting event and part Northern California social event, the Pro-Am has a devoted following. The appeal is such that eight tournament volunteers each has contributed more than 40 years of service.

The concoction of roughly four parts professional golfers to one part show business and sports celebrities has gone down as smoothly as a well-chilled libation in the Tap Room. Entertainer Phil Harris, a pal of Bing Crosby's, is credited with setting a certain tone by accompanying his golf with a glass of his favorite whiskey. One year Harris announced that he was the pro from "Jack Daniels Country Club."

The fun actually began at the very first tournament, in 1937 at Rancho Santa Fe, near Del Mar. It rained so hard for three days, some tournament contestants wound up shooting ducks on a pond near the 18th green. And when the ducks flew away, the players shot at Larry Crosby's hat. Sam Snead won that first tournament, but when he saw a $500 winner's check coming his way said, "If you don't mind, Mr. Crosby, I'd rather have cash."

In 1948, the tournament's second year on the Monterey Peninsula, Lloyd Mangrum won and put in solid nightly sessions at two long-gone bistros, the Blue Ox and Biff's El Estero. In 1951 Harris sank a 90-foot putt at Pebble Beach's 17th green to win the Pro-Am with partner Dutch Harrison. "How about that, Bing. Ain't this a helluva blow to clean living?" Harris said.

Ed "Porky" Oliver's name became part of the lore in 1953 when he took a 16 on the famous, over-the-water 16th at Cypress Point. A 50 milean-hour gale—just another chapter in the book on "Crosby Weather"—was blowing at the time.

In 1952 golfing dentist Cary Middlecoff, complained to Scottish-born Pebble Beach golf pro Peter Hay that windy conditions precluded the use of tees. Hay replied: "Show me in the rule book where it says you have to tee up the ball. Now get back out there and play."

In 1969, ABC's Jim McKay told a nationwide television audience: "And now here's Jack Lemmon, about to hit that all-important eighth shot."

When the rains hit in 1960, Pro-Am contestant Johnny (Tarzan) Weissmuller, once the world's greatest swimmer, declared: "I've never been so wet in my life." And in 1962 golf pro Jimmy Demaret got off one of the tournament's most famous lines. Peering out from his room at The Lodge at a blanket of snow on the ground, he said, "I knew I got loaded last night, but how did I wind up at Squaw Valley?"

On through the '70s and '80s the tournament advanced forward. Plus-fours and pleats were replaced by comfy cottons during the '90s. As we entered the new millennium, so did golf apparel, introducing "techy textiles". Logowear is everywhere and big business with top golf brands exuding the classic to the contemporary. For a time the game's changing nature included a swing to colored golf balls. Appropriately enough, Jerry Pate made a hole-in-one with one—his was orange—at the revered 16th hole at Cypress Point during the 1982 Pro-Am. Today, everyone is back to white balls.

It was in 1915 that Samuel F. B. Morse, distant relative of the inventor of the telegraph, first envisioned a Pebble Beach Golf Links. Since its opening on February 22, 1919, Pebble Beach Golf Links has been recognized for its superb layout and incredible beauty. Now 85 years later, it is a course lauded worldwide by champions and amateurs alike.

The course was borne of the vision of one man and built from the expertise of another. S.F.B. Morse saw this magnificent piece of land as a rich preserve worthy of appreciation and recreation. He commissioned Jack Neville, a five-time California state amateur golf champion, to create a course unsurpassed in beauty, yet challenging to even the best golfer in the game.

With the assistance of Douglas Grant on the bunkers, Neville created a lush series of holes linked by their incredible relationship to the dramatic land, sea and air that comprise the Monterey Peninsula. With its cliffside fairways, sea sloping greens and nine holes bordering the Pacific Ocean, Pebble Beach has captured the hearts of almost everyone who has crossed its path.

Open to the public to this day, Pebble Beach Golf Links and The Lodge at Pebble Beach herald the future with the promise of another 85 years of unforgettable golf, breathtaking beauty and unsurpassed service.

SUMMARIES AND RESULTS

The Beginning

Rancho Santa Fe-Santa Fe, California

The AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am golf tournament is the outgrowth of an idea Bing Crosby had in the mid-1930s after joining Lakeside Golf Club in Los Angeles.

Crosby came up with the idea of staging a pro-am competition to give Lakeside members and some other low handicap amateur golfers a chance to play with 50 or 60 professionals who were on the West Coast during the winter months.

Since he had a home in the area, and was involved with Del Mar race track, it was logical that the tournament be held in the San Diego area, and Crosby selected Rancho Santa Fe Golf Club as the site for the event.

The first tournament in 1937 was limited to 18 holes when a deluge washed out the first round, starting a precedent for future years when weather was a big factor. Sam Snead won the initial tournament with a 68 with George Von Elm runnerup at 72. Snead and George Lewis won the pro-am section with a 68. In 1938 Snead won again, shooting 72-67-- 139 and collecting $500. Art Bell and amateur Phil Finlay won the pro-am with a 134.

E. J. (Dutch) Harrison won in 1939, in Snead's absence, shooting 69- 69-138, topping Byron Nelson, 68-71-139, and Horton Smith, 71-68-139 by one stroke. Johnny Revolta and Maurie Luxford, who was a tournament official for many years, won the pro-am division with 130. Babe Didrikson Zaharias was an entry in the event with husband George Zaharias, a former pro wrestler, but never was a factor in the competition.

Ed (Porky) Oliver, who later gained recognition by taking 16 strokes on the 16th hole at Cypress Point, won in 1940 with rounds of 68-67-135, topping Vic Ghezzi, 69-69-138. Pro-am winners were John Geertsen Sr. and Russ Osgood with 129.

After starting with some 60 players, the 1941 field grew to more than 300, necessitating two days for the first round. Sam Snead won his third title with 67-69-136, edging Craig Wood, 69-68-137. Leonard Dodson and Ray Watson were the pro-am winners with 124.

The final tournament at Rancho Santa Fe was held in 1942 with Lloyd Mangrum and Leland Gibson listed as co-winners of the event. Mangrum had 70-66-136 while Gibson shot 67-69-136. The truth was, however, that they finished behind amateur John Dawson, who shot 66- 67-133. Dawson, who was a scratch player at Lakeside, refused the money. Harry Cooper and Dawson claimed pro-am honors. Cooper helped Dawson six strokes for a 127 total.

JANUARY 11-13

When Bing Crosby moved his tournament to the Monterey Peninsula, he expanded it to 54 holes and doubled the purse from $5,000 to $10,000.

The field of 75 professionals and their amateur partners played Cypress Point on Friday, moved to Monterey Peninsula Country Club on Saturday and played the final round on Sunday at Pebble Beach. It was windy the first day at Cypress Point, but Dick Metz fashioned a 67 and George Fazio a 68. Ben Hogan shot 78.

Bing Crosby's drive on one of the holes on the front nine landed in a tree. Bing spotted Johnny Weismuller playing down the next fairway, and yelled over, "Hey, Tarzan, I've got a tree-climbing job for you."

Ed Furgol and Fazio tied for first place at 213 with Sam Snead third at 216. Furgol earned a share of the top spot as the result of an eagle 2 on the 16th hole at Pebble Beach. He then parred in through a driving rain to finish with a par 72. "I thought I had it won until Ed's eagle," Fazio said. Sam Snead and Roger Kelly won the Pro-Am title with a score of 196.

LEADERS: First round - Dick Metz 67, George Fazio 68. Second round - George Fazio 70-138, Dick Metz 73-140, Lloyd Mangrum 68-140, Ed Oliver 70-140.

CUT: The tournament is 54 holes over three different courses so there is no cut.

WEATHER: Friday - Sunny and cold. Saturday - Clear and colder. Sunday - Morning mist turning to a heavy rain.

1948

JANUARY 9-11

The tournament drew three days of "beaming" weather in its second appearance on the Monterey Peninsula, and Lloyd Mangrum took advantage of the conditions to post rounds of 70-67-68-205 to claim top honors.

Bing Crosby attended a Monterey City Council meeting before the start of the tournament and was made an honorary Chief of Police with all of the privileges of the office. Ben Hogan and Johnny Dawson walked off with the Pro-Am honors with a 197 total.

LEADERS: First round - Lloyd Mangrum, George Fazio 70. Stan Leonard, Martin Rose 71. Second round - Mangrum 67-137, Leonard 67-138.

Frank Stranahan, the Ohio strongboy amateur, shot 71-66-137 to lead Ben Hogan by one stroke after 36 holes, but Hogan fired a two-under-par 70 in the final round at Pebble Beach to score his only Crosby victory with a 208 total.

Two weeks later Hogan was in a near-fatal crash with a bus between Phoenix and Fort Worth. Hogan shot a 63 at Cypress Point in a practice round prior to the tournament.

San Francisco pro Bill Nary and Lefty O'Doul, manager of the San Francisco Seals baseball team, won the Pro-Am with a 196 score.

There was no rain tournament week, but the weather was very cold. It was doudy and 50 and 52 for Thursday's practice round and Friday's first round. It was 52 again on Saturday and 54 on Sunday.

LEADERS: First round - Bill Nary 66, Joe Brown 68, Skip Alexander 68. Second round - Ben Hogan 70-68-138, Jim Ferrier 69-70-139, Jimmy Demaret 69-70-139, Bill Nary 66-73-139.

JANUARY 13-15

Making his second start of a comeback from his crash injuries, Ben Hogan was seven over par and two strokes out of the money, but still was the main draw for the gallery. He shot 77-74-72-223-with an eagle 3 on the sixth hole at Pebble Beach in the third round.

Sam Snead missed an 8-foot putt on the final hole and finished in a four-way tie for first place at 204 with Jackie Burke Jr., 72, Dave Douglas, 70, Smiley Quick, 73. Snead had a final round of 73. (There was no sudden death playoff in those days.)

Marty Furgol and Don Edwards, later to become a Congressman from California, and Ralph Blomquist and Bud Moe tied for first in the Pro-Am with scores of 201. The weather was even colder than the previous year, never getting above 49. It was 48 the other three days.

LEADERS: First round - Sam Snead 69, Newt Bassler 70, Dave Douglas, 70, Lawson Little 71. Second round - Sam Snead 72-141, Marty Furgol 69-141, Smiley Quick 69-141.

CUT: Tournament was 54 holes on three different courses so there was no cut.

WEATHER: Friday-Clear, cold, 49, gusty winds. Saturday-Partly cloudy, cold, 48. Sunday-Clear, cold, 48.

JANUARY 12-14

Byron Nelson hadn't played the PGA Tour in four years, but his game was sharp this week as he shot 71-67-71-209 to beat Dr. Cary Middlecoff by three shots, 76-67-69-212. Ed Furgol, George Fazio and Julius Boros tied for third at 213.

E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and Phil Harris won the Pro-Am with a score of 196. Harris made a 90-foot birdie putt on the 17th green.

It rained Thursday for the practice round. The weather was clear, cool and windy on Friday, 53 and clear and cold Saturday, again 53. Sunday was sunny and a pleasant 57.

LEADERS: First round - Pete Cooper, Jim Ferrier, Sherm Elworthy and Chandler Harper 70. Second round - Byron Nelson 67-138, Joe Kirkwood 70-141, E. J. Harrison 69-141.

CUT: Tournament was 54 holes over three different courses, there was no cut.

WEATHER: Thursday-Overcast with rain ending late in afternoon. Friday-Clear, cold, windy. Saturday-Clear, cool. Sunday-Sunny.

JANUARY 10-12

This was the "Year of the Big Blow," and the tournament was shortened to 36 holes because of weather conditions.

High velocity winds, estimated at 45 miles-per-hour by the weather bureau, sent scores soaring on Friday. Best round of the day was a 74 at Cypress Point by Jimmy Demaret. Al Besselink needed two woods, a 1-iron and a wedge to reach the par 4 17th hole. Two inches of rain during the night forced cancellation of the second round. Holes No. 4, 14 and 18 at Monterey Peninsula Country Club were under water and unplayable. Sunny weather prevailed for Sunday's round at Pebble Beach.

This was the tournament where Dr. Cary Middlecoff and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and their amateur partners marked the position of the golf balls on the 16th green at Cypress Point and started to walk off the course. They met venerable Peter Hay, the Pebble Beach pro, who asked them where they were going? "Peter, it's so windy out there you can't keep the ball on the tee," Middlecoff said. "Sure, and show me in the rule book where it says you have to tee up the ball," answered Hay. "Now, get back out there and play." And they did.

LEADERS: First round - Jimmy Demaret 74. Art Bell, Al Brosch, Guina Kop and Chuck Congdon 75. Second round - Jimmy Demaret 71-145. Art Bell 72-147.

CUT: Tournament was 54 holes over three different courses. No cut.

WEATHER: (Year of the BIG BLOW) Thursday-Cloudy, rain in afternoon, gusty winds. Friday-Start of tournament. Overcast, rain, high winds, (45 mph) Saturday-Cloudy and windy. Ground soggy. Tournament shortened to 36 holes.

1953

It was windy and there was intermittent rain the day before the tournament started, but conditions were near ideal for the three days of play. Early fog burned off and sunshine made ideal conditions Friday. The weather was clear and warm on Saturday, and Sunday was bright, although it was cool.

Format of play was changed with the field increased to 100 professionals, half playing Cypress Point and half Monterey Peninsula the first day, and switching courses on Saturday. The field was cut to the low 60 pros for the final round Sunday at Pebble Beach. Sam Snead and Ben Hogan both were forced to withdraw two days before the tournament because of scheduling conflicts.

Lloyd Mangrum registered his second victory on the Monterey Peninsula, clipping a stroke off his own tournament record with a winning total of 204. Dr. Cary Middlecoff and Ed Crowley won the Pro-Am with a score of 190.

LEADERS: First round-Pete Fleming 66, Lloyd Mangrum 67, Jackie Burke 67, Jim Ferrier 67. Second round-Lloyd Mangrum 66-133. Julius Boros, Cary Middlecoff, Jim Ferrier, Tommy Bolt 136.

CUT: Tournament was 54 holes over three different courses.

WEATHER: Friday-Early fog, becoming sunny. Saturday-Clear, warm, 73. Sunday-Fog with bright periods. Cool, 56.

Tony Holguin, a 27-year-old Texan making his first venture into California, posted an amazing 9-under-par 63 to better the course record at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club's Dunes course for a five-stroke lead in the opening round.

But the lean 5-8 golfer ballooned to an 81 the second day at Cypress Point and eventually wound up finishing one stroke out of the money at 219. E. J. (Dutch) Harrison shot a 68 in the second round to take the 36-hole lead at 139 and added a closing 71 at Pebble Beach for a 210 total to edge Jimmy Demaret by one stroke. Tommy Bolt was third at 212. Harrison enjoyed the luxury of teeing off on the 18th hole in the final round with a three-stroke lead and knowing that he could take a double bogey 7 and still win. And Dutch took a double bogey on the par 5 hole, but still was happy with his $2,000 check.

Four teams tied for first place in the pro-am competition at 193. The co-champs were Bud Ward and Harvie Ward, Walter Burkemo and Lefty O'Doul, Art Wall, Jr. and Gene Littler and Doug Ford and Monty Moncrief. Bud and Harvie Ward shot a best-ball 62 in the final round to earn a share of the top spot.

Played in mid-January, the tournament had poor weather conditions all three days with a drizzle and wind on Friday, rain on Saturday and rain and wind on Sunday.

LEADERS: First round-Tony Holguin (MP) 63, Jimmy Clark, Art Doering, Ellsworth Vines 69. Second round-E. J. Harrison 71-68-139, Jimmy Demaret 141, Tommy Bolt 141.

CUT: Field was cut after 36 holes with final round played at Pebble Beach. Cut for pros was 151 with 59 survivors. 46 teams made cut for final round.

WEATHER: Friday-Overcast, drizzle, stiff wind. Saturday- Overcast, misty, windy.

1955

JANUARY 14-16

Dr. Cary Middlecoff won the first of his back-to-back victories by posting a one-under-par 71 over wind-swept Pebble Beach for a 54-hole total of 209, finishing four strokes ahead of Paul Maguire and Julius Boros. Bob Rosburg, who had started one stroke behind Middlecoff, shot 77 and finished in a tie for sixth at 216. Byron Nelson and Ed Lowery gained 11 strokes with a best ball 63 to win the Pro-Am division at 195 (64-68-63). They had started nine strokes behind leaders Rosburg and Hank Mann, and won by two as Rosburg and Mann shot 74 and finished third at 197.

LEADERS: First round-Stan Leonard 66, Jerry Barber 66, Doug Ford 67. Second round-Cary Middlecoff 69-138, Bob Rosburg 67-139, Mike Souchak 67-139, Leonard 73-139.

CUT: Low 60 teams and any other professionals in contention. Cut 148.

WEATHER: Friday-Partly cloudy, cool. Saturday-Overcast, rain, cold, 50. Sunday-overcast, rain, clearing by mid-morning.

1956

JANUARY 13-15

After winning the previous year in comparatively good weather, Middlecoff proved himself adept under entirely different conditions in 1956, and did it with a record setting performance of 202 to win by five strokes over Mike Souchak, who shot 207 and was the only other player to better 211 for the three days.

Middlecoff shot 66 at Cypress Point, 68 at Monterey Peninsula and an amazing 68 in an all-day rainstorm at Pebble Beach.

Ben Hogan, who shot an 81 in the final round, called Middlecoffs 68 "in that terrible weather, one of the best rounds of golf ever played, if not the best."

Ralph Blomquist and George Galios, a top Monterey amateur, won the Pro-Am with a score of 188.

LEADERS: First round-Mike Souchak 64, Mike Fetchick 65. Second round-Cary Middlecoff 68-134, Bob Rosburg 65-134, Mike Souchak 71-134.

CUT: After 36 holes 56 pros with scores of 145 survived. Team cut was 130.

WEATHER: Friday-Cloudy, mild. Saturday-Overcast, rain, windy, but mild, 65. Sunday-Overcast, fog, rain, very windy.

JANUARY 11-13

Jay Hebert won the last Bing Crosby tournament played over 54 holes, finishing with a 213 score to beat Dr. Cary Middlecoff, who missed a 3-foot putt on the last hole, by two strokes. Middlecoff and Ed Crowley won the Pro-Am by nine strokes with a score of 187.

Ken Venturi made his professional debut and tied for fifth place with a 220 score, earning $350. It had been the driest winter in years, but during Saturday's second round high winds came up and rains drenched the Monterey Peninsula. Shortly after the tournament ended the storm knocked out power lines on the peninsula.

LEADERS: First round-Billy Maxwell 66, Stan Leonard 68, Bob Rosburg 68, Bill Nary 68. Second round-Stan Leonard 74-142, Jay Hebert 69-143, Cary Middlecoff 67-143, Julius Boros 68-143.

CUT: The field was cut to 55 pros with scores of 150 or better for final round

WEATHER: Friday-Clear, mild, 57. Saturday-Overcast, rain and fog in afternoon. Sunday-Partly cloudy, windy.

1958

JANUARY 9-12

The tournament went to 72 holes for the first time, and also was televised nationally for the first time. The purse was boosted from $15,000 to $50,000.

Bob Rosburg shot 65 at Monterey Peninsula Country Club to lead after 36 holes but had a bad final round and tied for 10th. Billy Casper shot 71- 66-69-71-277 to beat Dave Marr by four shots.

A retired Army colonel tried to rob the tournament office but was thwarted by a deputy sheriff who feigned a heart attack and captured the would-be robber. Afternoon rain marred the first two rounds, but it was sunny for the final two although Sunday's golfers had to battle gusty winds. Jay Hebert and Roger Kelly, who had been second the year before, won the Pro-Am with a score of 260.

LEADERS: First round-Bob Rosburg (CP) 65. Second round-Bob Rosburg 65-67-132. Third round-Bob Rosburg (PB) 74-206. Billy Casper 69-206.

CUT: The field was cut after 36 holes. There were 59 pros with scores of 147 and below. Team cut was 134 with 47 teams playing final round.

WEATHER: Thursday-Partly cloudy, rain in afternoon. Friday-Overcast, stiff winds. Saturday-Rain in afternoon.

The weather started out bad and got worse as the tournament progressed.

A drenching rain hit the Monterey Peninsula Thursday morning and 50-mile per-hour winds whipped the golfers in the afternoon. Tournament officials compared the day to the worst they could remember since the Bing Crosby tournament moved to the Monterey Peninsula in 1947. Only 17 of 150 professionals were able to match or better par and 15 of those played at Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

Ed Furgol three-putted from two feet on the 17th green at Pebble Beach. His chip shot stopped two feet from the hole, and his first putt rimmed the cup and, accelerated by the wind, rolled six feet below the hole. His second putt also rimmed the cup and halted eight feet away. Furgol made that putt for a double bogey 5.

Taking advantage of a "perfect" day, cloudy and mild, Ken Venturi posted a 68 at Cypress Point on Saturday to take the lead with a score of 209.

Venturi struggled through the rain and wind on Sunday for a 77, but his 286 total still was three strokes ahead of runnersup Julius Boros and Tommy Jacobs. Boros was one of four players to card one over par 73 that day. The others were Doug Ford, Al Balding and Wes Ellis. Don January, who started three shots back of Venturi, birdied from the bunker on the third hole as Venturi three-putted, and pulled to within one shot of the lead. But January blew his chances when he hooked his tee shot out of bounds on the par-3 fifth and took a 4 after sinking a 40-foot putt. He double bogeyed the par-3 seventh.

Gene Littler, who started two back of Venturi, pulled his tee shot into the water hazard on the fifth for a double bogey and also bogeyed the eighth and ninth holes to go out in 40 and out of contention.

Bud Ward and Bob Silvestri won the Pro-Am with 262. Silvestri helped Ward 37 strokes.

LEADERS: First round-Dick Knight (MPCC) 67, Gene Littler (MPCC) 67, Paul O'Leary 70, Tommy Jacobs 70, Ken Venturi 70. Second round-Mike Souchak (MPCC) 66-139, Gene Littler 73-140. Third round-Ken Venturi (CP) 68-209, Littler 71-211.

CUT: There were 62 players at 226 and under after 54 holes. Team cut was 205 with 46 teams surviving for final round.

WEATHER: Thursday-Cloudy with rain and gusty winds. Friday-Cloudy, mild, 61. Saturday-Mostly cloudy, mild, 61. Sunday-Cloudy, rain most of day.

Bob Rosburg, who had lost in the finals of the California State Amateur Championship three times, and twice had shared the lead in the Bing Crosby National Pro-Am going into the final round, finally snapped the Pebble Beach jinx.

The ex-Stanford star came from seven strokes back on Sunday to win in dramatic fashion with a 14-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole. He needed that putt to nose out Dave Ragan and Roberto de Vicenzo by one shot.

Rosburg shot 72 for a 282 total, but until he made that birdie putt, a total of seven players had a chance to win. Bill Collins could have tied him with a birdie on the 18th, but 3-putted for a bogey 6 and wound up in a tie for fourth. Ted Kroll, the 54-hole leader at 203, shot a closing 81 and tied for fourth at 284 with Arnold Palmer, Gardner Dickinson and Collins.

In 1956 Rosburg shared the 36-hole lead with Dr. Cary Middlecoff at 134, but shot 77 in the final round (the tournament was a 54-hole event in those days) and finished in a tie for third. In 1958 he shared the 54-hole lead with Billy Casper, but shot 81 the final day and tied for 10th.

Casper set a Pebble Beach course record on Saturday with a 65. He needed only 10 putts on the back nine.

The tournament was blessed with sunny, warm weather the first three days. Sunday was cloudy, but mild. The final round attracted a record crowd of 35,000 fans.

Wes Ellis and Frank Tatum Jr. won the Pro-Am title with a score of 252. Tatum helped Ellis 37 strokes.

LEADERS: First round-Bob Goalby (MPCC) 66, Bill Collins (PB) 67, Ken Venturi (PB) 67, Dave Hill (MPCC) 67, Howie Johnson (CP) 67. Second round-Bill Collins (CP) 68-135, Ted Kroll (MPCC) 66-135, Bob Rosburg (MPCC) 67-136. Third round-Ted Kroll (PB) 68-203, Dave Hill (CP) 70-207.

CUT: There were 68 pros at 220 or better after 54 holes. Team cut was 198 with 44 twosomes surviving.

WEATHER: Thursday-Sunny mild 69. Friday-Sunny, warmer, 72. Saturday-Sunny, then cooler in afternoon, 66. Sunday-Cloudy, cool, 66.

This was the year when "Crosby Weather" hit its peak.

Final round of play on Sunday was postponed because snow, rain, hail and sleet made the course unplayable. The first four groups had just teed off when Joe Black, PGA Tour supervisor, called off play. Dean Martin had to pull out because of a motion picture commitment, leaving pro partner Ken Venturi to play alone. It cost Venturi money in the pro-am division.

The tournament wound up Monday with Doug Ford and Joe Campbell in a tie at 286. Ford won the sudden-death playoff on the first hole with a 6-foot par putt after Campbell missed from 7-feet.

Ford had started the final round two strokes behind Campbell, but tied him on the 17th hole when Campbell hooked his tee shot into a bunker and bogeyed the hole. Ford made an 8-foot par putt.

On the 18th, Ford made a 4 1/2-foot putt for his par after going past the hole. Campbell was three inches short on a 20-foot birdie putt. In the playoff, Ford blasted out of a bunker to six feet. Campbell was just short of the green on his second shot and putted 7-feet past, and missed coming back.

Ford hit only nine greens and shot 74.

Art Doering had a hole-in-one on the 100 yard seventh hole at Pebble Beach with a wedge on Thursday. Gary Player scored an ace on the 160- yard fifth hole at Pebble Beach on Friday with a 4-iron, and Al Geiberger had a hole-in-one on the 122-yard 15th at Cypress Point on Saturday using an 8-iron.

Bob McCallister and Albie Pearson, who was given a "healthy" 10 handicap, walked off with the pro-am title with a score of 255.

LEADERS: First round-Joe Campbell (MPCC) 67, Phil Rodgers (MPCC) 67, Chuck Congdon (MPCC) 67. Second round-Joe Campbell 71-138, Jacky Cupit (PB) 71-139. Third round-Joe Campbell (CP) 72-210, Doug Ford (CP) 69-211.

CUT: After 54 holes 65 pros were at 224 or better. Team cut was 203 with 47 teams making it into the final round.

WEATHER: Thursday-Cloudy. Friday-Cloudy, rain, increasing in afternoon. Saturday-Cloudy, gusty wind in afternoon. Rain at night, turning to snow. Sunday-Round postponed because of 1/2 inch of snow. Also cold and sleet. Monday-Partly cloudy, cold with gusty winds.

The battle for the championship went down to the last hole in one of the tightest finishes of the tournament history with Billy Casper shooting 74 to win with a 72-hole total of 285.

Casper trailed Bob Duden by one shot going into the final round, but Duden three-putted the 18th green and took a 77 for 287. Gary Player had a 30-foot birdie putt for a tie and missed. Jack Nicklaus needed a 4 to win and a par 5 to tie, but pushed his second shot on the 18th behind a pine tree. His third shot sailed 30 feet past the hole and his birdie putt rolled six feet below the cup. He missed the comeback and finished with 70 for 286, which put him in a tie for second place with Bob Rosburg, Art Wall, Dave Hill and Player.

Arnold Palmer was disqualified for a rules violation on Saturday on the 17th hole. After hitting a 2-iron over the green and onto the rocks in front of the 18th tee, Palmer played a provisional ball, a rules violation which later led to his disqualification.

A record crowd of 25,000 fans watched Saturday's action as Duden shot 67 at Monterey Peninsula to take the lead with 210. He birdied five of the last six holes.

A cold, biting wind proved troublesome at Cypress Point on Thursday and only six players were under 70 there in the opening round. Julius Boros was the first day leader with a 66 at Monterey Peninsula.

Doug Sanders and Lloyd Pitzer were the Pro-Am winners with a score of 257.

LEADERS: First round-Julius Boros (MPCC) 66, George Bayer (MPCC) 68, Paul Harney (CP) 68, Dave Hill (CP) 68. Second round-Dave Hill (MPCC) 69-137, Billy Casper (MPCC) 65-138. Third round-Bob Duden (MPCC) 67-210, Billy Casper (PB) 73-211. Julius Boros (CP) 70-211.

CUT: After 54 holes 67 players were at 225 and under. Team cut was 202 with 46 teams advancing to final round.

WEATHER: Thursday-Sunny after morning fog, hazy. Friday-Morning fog, cloudy. Saturday-Sunny, but cold in morning after low of 37 at night. Sunday-Sunny with high of 60.

2-way tie	T10					264	(24)

The week started out with ideal weather and low scores. Al Balding of Canada shot a 66 to lead Thursday's play by one stroke over Geoffrey Hunt and Bobby Nichols. Balding added a 67 on Friday for 133 and a three stroke edge over Bruce Devlin, who also had a 67.

Saturday's play ended in the rain with Tony Lema carding a 70 to tie Balding, who had 75, at 208. National television caught Arnold Palmer "on the rocks" at the 17th hole where he overshot the green and wound up with a 9 on the par-3 hole. Palmer finished with a 76 and missed the cut by one stroke. Jack Nicklaus shot 77 and missed by two.

Lema slogged through the wind and rain on Sunday for a 76 and 284 total to win the tournament. Rain fell throughout the day and 25-30 mph winds made Pebble Beach more difficult. Best score of the day was a 73 by Gay Brewer, which vaulted him from 16th place to a tie for second. Balding had an 88 to drop from a tie for the lead to a tie for 34th place.

Mike Fetchick and Charlie Seaver won the Pro-Am competition with a score of 258 to edge Lema and Fr. John Durkin by one stroke.

LEADERS: First round-Al Balding (CP) 66, Geoffrey Hunt (MPCC) 67, Bobby Nichols (CP) 67. Second round-Balding (MPCC) 67-133, Bruce Devlin (CP) 67-136. Third round-Tony Lema (PB) 70-208, Al Balding (PB) 75-208. Jay Hebert (PB) 72-210, Bruce Devlin (MPCC) 74-210.

CUT: After 54 holes there were 64 pros at 220 and below. Team cut was 198 with 41 teams advancing to final round.

WEATHER: Thursday-Partly cloudy, cool. Friday-Cloudy, mild, 57. Saturday-Cloudy. Sunday-Cloudy, rain in afternoon, but 60 degrees.

Bruce Crampton became the first foreign player to win the Crosby tournament when he shot a closing round of three-under-par 69 and a total score of 284, topping Tony Lema by three strokes and Jack Nicklaus and Billy Casper by four.

Crampton credited his victory to a tip Nicklaus had given him on the practice tee on Wednesday. Nicklaus wound up in a third place tie when he three-putted the 18th green the final day.

Lema shot a 79 Saturday at Pebble Beach in conditions he called "the worst I've played in since 1964," when he won the British Open at St. Andrews.

The opening day drew a record crowd of 11,000 and Doug Ford set a Monterey Peninsula Country Club Shore Course record of 66. Perfect weather conditions existed until afternoon when rain pelted late starters. Players at Cypress Point and Monterey Peninsula were allowed to lift, clean and place their ball, but not at Pebble Beach. Lema broke Ford's record in the second round with a 65 to take a 3- stroke lead at 136.

George Archer and golf writer Nelson Cullenward had a 66 Sunday to tie George Bayer and Morgan Barofsky at 260 for the Pro-Am title.

LEADERS: First round-Dave Ragan (CP) and Doug Ford (MPCC) shot 66s for 1-stroke lead over Don January (CP). Second round-Tony Lema (MPCC) shot 65 for 136 total and 3-stroke lead over Bill Collins (MPCC) 70, and Charlie Sifford (MPCC) 68. Third round-Rocky Thompson (MPCC) shot 68 for 212 and a 2-stroke lead over Harold Kneece (CP) 69 and Bob Harris (MPCC) 73 at 214.

CUT: After 54 holes there were 73 pros at 224 and under. The team cut was 203 with 47 teams surviving.

WEATHER: First round-Showers in afternoon. Second round-Foggy most of day. Third round-Foggy, cloudy, rain and gusty winds. Fourth round-Cloudy morning, sunny but windy in afternoon.

This was proclaimed the "Silver Anniversary" of the Crosby tournament, but it really was the 26th. Larry Crosby thought there had been five tournaments held at Rancho Santa Fe when there actually were six. But rather than cause confusion after the programs already had been printed, it was left that way.

It turned out to be an exciting tournament with Don Massengale holing a 5-foot birdie putt on the 18th to register his first tour win with a final round of 70 and a 283 total. Massengale, who had started the final round four strokes behind Al Geiberger, needed the final birdie to fight off a challenge from Arnold Palmer, who birdied three of his last four holes, to win by one stroke. Geiberger shot 75 to finish in a tie for third place with Billy Martindale.

More than 25,000 fans turned out for Thursday's opening round, and Saturday's attendance was estimated at 32,000, the largest third day turnout in the history of the tournament. Jack Nicklaus, among the leaders going to the 18th tee, watched his first drive bounce off the left side of the fairway, hit the rocks and disappear. His second effort also went over the bank. While helping to look for the ball, PGA official George Walsh stumbled and fell in the water. Nicklaus took a 9 on the hole and finished with 76 for a 295 total.

Chuck Courtney and Dr. John Moler shot a final round of 62 to tie Martindale and Bob Roos at 255 in the pro-am. Courtney and Moler won the title in a playoff.

LEADERS: First round-Al Geiberger (MPCC) 68 for one stroke lead over Lee Raymond (MP), Paul Bondeson (MP), Ernie Vossler (MP) and Ken Towns (MP). Second round-Don Massengale (MPCC) added 67 for 137 and two stroke lead over Bert Yancey (MPCC) 66 for 139. Third round-Geiberger (CP) 67 for 209 and 3-stroke lead over Billy Martindale (MPCC) 69.

CUT: After 54 holes 70 pros were at 224 and below. Team cut was 200 with 42 teams surviving.

WEATHER: Thursday was sunny with gusts of wind in afternoon. Friday sunny. Saturday cloudy and Sunday sunny although the high was only 53.

1967 marked the first year the newly-built Spyglass Hill Golf Course would become part of the tournament. Jack Nicklaus birdied five of the last seven holes in the final round, shooting a 31 on the back nine enroute to a 68 to beat Billy Casper and Arnold Palmer for the championship. Nicklaus needed only 13 putts on the final nine as he claimed his first Crosby victory with a 284 total.

Casper, who had started the round with a one-stroke lead over Nicklaus and Palmer, shot 74 for 289 while Palmer had 75 for 291.

Nicklaus never was in the lead until he birdied the 12th hole. Palmer took a 9 on the 14th hole, hitting two balls out of bounds. His second shot hit a big pine tree on the right of the fairway and bounced out-of-bounds. He then hit another out-of-bounds. The big tree fell down during the night.

Nicklaus was five-under-par after 14 holes at Cypress Point in the second round and wound up with a 73, one over par, but still leading with 142. The day started with a threat of rain and finished with gale winds of 45 mph.

Saturday's round was postponed as savage winds threatened life and limb. Only two foursomes had completed play when action was suspended at 12:30 p.m. It was the third one-day suspension of play in the history of the Crosby, 1952 because of rain, and 1962 because of snow. Early rain turned into a downpour at 10 o'clock.

Mike Souchak and his brother Frank won the Pro-Am division with a score of 259, shooting 67 the final day.

LEADERS: First round-Joe Carr (CP) had 68 for one stroke lead over Jack Nicklaus (PB). Second round-Nicklaus shot 73 (CP) for 142 and 2-stroke lead over Jerry Pittman (PB), Jim Colbert (PB), Steve Opperman (SH) and Bob McCallister (SH). Third round-Billy Casper (PB) shot 69 for 215 and one stroke lead over Nicklaus (SH) 74 and Arnold Palmer (CP) 67.

CUT: After 54 holes there were 77 pros at 227 and under. Team cut was 293 with 44 teams surviving.

WEATHER: Thursday-Partly cloudy, cool. Friday-Rain, fog, cloudy in morning. Saturday's round cancelled at 12:39. Sunday-Sunny, mild, high 54. Monday-Partly sunny, light gusts of wind. High 54.

Johnny Pott chipped in from 26-feet on the first playoff hole (No. 15) to defeat Billy Casper and Bruce Devlin after the three had tied at 285. Pott had started the final round with a three-stroke lead over Casper and Devlin, but shot 73 while the other two shot 70.

On the playoff hole Casper's second shot was seven feet from the cup, while Pott was right of the green. "I thought I had to make 2 and was aiming right for the flag on my approach," Pott said. "But I pushed the 8- iron shot to the right and stopped between the two sand traps. Man, I hit a good chip. The ball was going a little bit hard, but it hit the cup and went in." Casper missed his birdie putt. "I played it two inches to the left of the cup and it stayed there," Casper said.

On Friday Pott had tied the course record of 71 at Spyglass Hill set by Francisco Lopez the previous year in the Northern California PGA Match Play Championship.

Pott and Virgil Sherrill won the Pro-Am division with a score of 253. Sherrill helped Pott 32 strokes.

LEADERS: First round-Lou Graham (CP) 63 took one stroke lead over Dave Hill (CP) and Tommy Jacobs. Second round-Johnny Pott (SH) 71 for 141 to lead Bruce Devlin (CP) 69, Billy Casper (PB) 69, and Mike Fetchick (CP) 71 by one stroke. Third round-Johnny Pott (PB) 71 for 212 and 3- stroke lead over Casper (CP) and Devlin, 213.

CUT: After 54 holes 82 pros were at 226 or lower. Cut for team play was 202 with 45 teams surviving.

The sun came out for the final round as George Archer shot a one-under-par 71 to win by one stroke over Bob Dickson, Dale Douglass and Howie Johnson. It rained the rest of the tournament. Thursday's round was cancelled because of rain. It was cloudy on Friday and the courses were soggy. It was cloudy and rained in the afternoon on both Saturday and Sunday. Johnny Pott shot a five-under-par 67 Saturday at Spyglass Hill to better the course record of 70 set the year before by Bob Murphy. However, the mark was "unofficial" because the pros were "bumping" the ball on the soggy fairways, and also were teeing off well ahead of the blue tee markers.

Sunday, at Spyglass Hill, Archer played the back nine first and shot 39. On the 17th hole he dumped his second shot into the front left bunker. Normally a good sand player, Archer had trouble with the wet and muddy sand in the Spyglass traps and left his first attempt in the sand. He came out weakly on the second and then two-putted for a double bogey 6. On the 18th Archer put his second shot in another bunker. Again he left his first effort in the trap, and then blasted 20 feet past the cup. He three-putted for a triple bogey seven. But he came back on the front nine (his second) for a round of 72. He hit only one bunker on Monday, the 17th at Pebble Beach, and this time came out three feet from the cup and saved his par 3. Jack Nicklaus four-putted the 14th green at Spyglass and Bob Lunn four-putted the 11th, had four other three-putt greens and still shot 73.

Bob Dickson and Jack Ging won the Pro-Am division with a score of 257. Ging, a 9-handicapper, helped Dickson 27 strokes.

LEADERS: First round-Terry Wilcox (CP) and Jim Colbert (PB) 4-underpar 68s for one stroke lead over Dan Sikes (SH), Steve Spray (SH) and Bruce Devlin (PB). Second round-George Archer (CP) 68, Howie Johnson (PB) 69 and Dale Douglass (SH) 69 tied at 140, two strokes ahead of Jerry McGee, Bob Dickson, Bob Goalby and Johnny Pott. Third round-Dale Douglass (PB) 70 for 210 to lead Howie Johnson (SH) 71 by one. George Archer, 72, third at 212.

CUT: After 54 holes there were 79 pros at 223. Team cut was 200 with 41 teams surviving.

WEATHER: Thursday's round canceled, rain; Friday- Cloudy. Saturday-Cloudy, rain in afternoon. Sunday-Cloudy, rain in afternoon. Monday-rainy.

Heavy rains soaked the three tournament courses in the week prior to play, but the weather cleared up for the opening round. "Bumping" the ball through the greens, Ron Cerrudo, Bob Murphy, Bert Yancey and Bob Goalby tied for the first-round lead with 67s.

Yancey gained sole possession of the lead after the second round, held it through the third and finished with a 3-under 69 on Sunday for a one-stroke win over Jack Nicklaus, who had closed with a 65. Yancey's 278 won the tournament, but Nicklaus's 279 earned him $14,300, which was enough to make him only the third pro golfer to pass $1 million in earnings, after Arnold Palmer and Billy Casper.

Bob Rosburg and 49er quarterback John Brodie won the Pro-Am with a best-ball 252, as Brodie, who received a 7 handicap, helped Rosburg 37 shots.

LEADERS: First round-Bert Yancey (CP), Ron Cerrudo (PB), Bob Murphy (SH) and Bob Goalby (CP) opened with 67s to lead Tom Shaw (CP), Jim Wiechers (CP), George Archer (CP), Howie Johnson (CP), George Knudson (SH), Hugh Royers (SH) by one stroke. Second round-Yancey added 70 (SH) for 137 to lead Wiechers and Goalby to two. Third round-Yancey's par 72 (PB) and 209 total one shot ahead of Goalby, Don Massengale (SH) and Rod Funseth (PB).

CUT: After 54 holes 71 pros at 219 and under. Team play cut was 195 with 37 surviving.

WEATHER: Thursday-Sunshine after early fog, little wind. Friday-Windy (40 mph) rain at night. Saturday and Sunday-Sunny.

Tom Shaw, attired in the colors of his alma mater-green (turtleneck) and yellow (sweater and slacks)-beat Arnold Palmer and his Army on a glorious Sunday afternoon.

"This was the calmest I've ever seen it here in January," Palmer declared. "It was unbelievable."

Palmer's Army believed its leader was on his way to the victory when he mounted a typical charge in the final round. Palmer chipped in for an eagle 3 on the second hole to gain a tie with Shaw. But bogeys on the fifth, seventh and ninth holes cost Palmer dearly as Shaw played the front nine in 32 for a four-shot advantage. The University of Oregon-product faltered coming in, with bogeys at the 17th and 18th, but his round of 70, to Palmer's 71, was enough for a two-stroke victory.

Jack Montgomery, a pro from Fort Worth, Texas, took a 15 at Pebble's 10th hole after going over the edge of the fairway onto the rocks.

LEADERS: First round-Tom Shaw (CP), Bobby Nichols (CP) and Terry Dill (SH) shot 68s to share one-stroke lead over Howie Johnson (CP). Second round-Shaw (SH), Johnson (SH) and Paul Hamey, 68 (SH) tied at 139 to lead Bobby Nichols, Bob Murphy and Arnold Palmer by one. Third round-Shaw 69 (PB) led at 208 with Palmer 69 (PB) 209 and Johnson 210. CUT: The 54-hole cut was 223 with 80 professionals competing in final round. Team cut was 201 with 37 teams surviving.

WEATHER: Thursday-Sunny with 15-20 mph winds in afternoon. Rest of week sunny with balmy 78 degrees on Sunday.

Jack Nicklaus opened with a 66 at Cypress Point, overshadowing Larry Mowry's course-record 69 at Spyglass Hill.

Johnny Miller and Herb Hooper lowered the Spyglass record by a stroke on Friday while Nicklaus was taking a 74 on the same course, but Nicklaus and Tony Jacklin were tied for the second-round lead. On Saturday Rod Funseth shot a course-record 64 at Pebble Beach and Dan Sikes and Ken Towns lowered the Spyglass mark to 66.

By the final afternoon, it was all Nicklaus and Miller, and coming down the final nine Miller made one of the worst shots in Crosby history, shanking a 7-iron at the 16th hole. Nicklaus returned the bogey favor at the 17th, three-putting from 35 feet, and the two finished in a deadlock at 284 after the regulation 72 holes.

Nicklaus won the eventful tournament with a 25-foot birdie putt on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff.

In the Pro-Am, Lee Trevino and Don Schwab, a former University of California golfer, teamed for a 256 and the victory.

LEADERS: First round-Jack Nicklaus (CP) with 66 took 3-stroke lead over Lee Trevino (CP), Larry Mowry (SH) and Paul Moran (CP). Second round-Nicklaus and Tony Jacklin (SH) shared lead at 140. Herb Hooper (SH) 68 at 141. Third round-Johnny Miller (PB) 67 led at 210 with Jacklin (PB) and Nicklaus (PB) at 211.

CUT: After 54 holes 70 players were at 223. Team cut was 204 with 36 teams.

WEATHER: Perfect to super all week. Cool and breezy Thursday morning. 75 on Friday.

1973

JANUARY 25-28

Host Bing Crosby was hospitalized in San Francisco with pleurisy, so Bob Hope filled in as emcee at the pre-tournament Clambake. "It's great to be here to play this benefit for Jack Nicklaus," Hope said.

Nicklaus, who had followed up his 1972 Crosby victory with the U.S. Open Championship at Pebble Beach in June 1972, won his second consecutive Crosby. This time he beat Orville Moody and Raymond Floyd on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff, rolling in a 12-foot birdie putt.

Lanny Wadlons, 1970 U.S. Amateur champion, was within four strokes of the lead after 54 holes. But after collecting 18 birdies in the first three days, he managed only one on Sunday while shooting an 82.

LEADERS: First round-Billy Casper (CP) 66 for two-stroke lead over Tom Weiskopf. Second round-Casper (SH) added 67 for 4-stroke lead over Orville Moody 71-66-137. Third round-Orville Moody 69-209 for one-stroke lead over Lanny Wadlons and Don Iverson.

CUT: After 54 holes 72 players were at 222 and under. Team cut was 204 with 36 teams surviving.

WEATHER: Early play Thursday delayed 45 minutes by rain. Rest of week sunny.

JANUARY 3-7

One of the wettest golf experiences on record occurred at the 33rd Crosby. Rain wiped out Thursday's opening round, but Johnny Miller's 72-on a day when 80 was a good score-proved prophetic. Only 20 of the 162 pros completed play on Thursday, so Friday's round became the official opener, and in that one rookie Gary McCord took a two-stroke lead with a 65 at Cypress Point, while rookie Barney Thompson had a 67 at Pebble. "Who?" asked Jack Nicklaus, the defending champion when asked about the two rookies.

Saturday's round began in the rain and ended in hail. The final groups were called in and told to complete their second rounds on Sunday, with Miller and McCord tied for the lead. Miller opened a four-stroke lead on the field in Sunday's third round, firing a 70 at Pebble Beach as McCord skied to an 80, also at Pebble. Another storm hit the course on Monday, and Miller was declared the winner of the tournament. He and amateur partner Locke de Brettville of Woodside won the Pro-Am with scores of 64-67-65-196.

LEADERS: First round-Gary McCord (CP) shot 7-under-par 65 to lead Lanny Wadkins (CP) and Barney Thompson (PB) by two. Second round-McCord added 73 at SH for 138 to share lead with Johnny Miller (SH) who had 70. Third round-Miller (PB) added 70 at PB for 8-underpar 208 and four-stroke lead over Grier Jones, 72 (PB).

CUT: Pro cut was 223 with 71 survivors. Team cut was 204 with 27 teams.

WEATHER: Thursday's round cancelled, heavy rain. Friday—Rain off and on all day. Saturday—Rain and some sun. Sunday—Rain and hail on all courses. Play temporarily suspended. Monday—postponed for final round, and Tuesday, cancelled. Course not playable.

Veteran Gene Littler, 44, won the tournament, but a 25-year-old Tom Watson, ex-Stanford player, had the galleries abuzz with his play. After Hubert Green and Larry Ziegler opened the tourney with 66s, Littler and Watson moved to the head of the pack after the second round, Watson making birdies on his last four holes at Pebble, the 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th.

Littler, using a new Zebra putter, asserted himself on Saturday with a 68 at Cypress Point for a four-stroke lead, and Gene the Machine cruised home on Sunday, his 73 at Pebble holding off Green by four strokes. The Pro-Am went to Bruce Devlin and Jacky Lee, a former Houston Oiler quarterback, with a best-ball score of 260. Lee, with a 10 handicap, helped Devlin 29 strokes.

LEADERS: First round-Hubert Green and Larry Ziegler shared lead with 66s to lead Gene Littler (SH), Ross Randall (CP) and Andy North (CP) by one. Second round-Littler and Tom Watson (PB) took lead at 139. Third round-Littler opened a four stroke lead with 68 at CP for 207 and lead over Watson.

CUT: After 54 holes, 72 pros were at 223, but only low 60 and ties (61) played final round.

WEATHER: Weather was clear and sunny all week with temperatures in the high 60s. Sunday was cooler with wind.

When Jack Nicklaus moved into a one-stroke lead over Mike Morley after 54 holes, the 35th Crosby looked like it was over. But Nicklaus, after rounds of 67-72-70, scraped the ball around Pebble Beach in the final round for an 82. His second nine 45 included two triple bogeys and a double bogey.

On the 18th hole Nicklaus hit his second shot into Carmel Bay. "I had driven the ball so darned far that I figured if I was going to shoot 79, I might as well finish in glory," he said. Instead, his fourth shot found the front bunker, and he took four more shots to get down with an 8 on the par 5 hole.

Meanwhile, 24-year-old Ben Crenshaw, who had started the day three strokes behind Nicklaus, shot 34-35-69 for his second victory as a pro, his 281 total edging Morley by two strokes. The win was the first for Crenshaw since 1973, when he won his first event as a pro, the San Antonio-Texas Open. "I just turned 24, but here I am already making a comeback," Crenshaw said.

LEADERS: First round-Jack Nicklaus and Mike Morley, both CP, had 67s to lead George Johnson (CP) by a stroke. Second round-Dave Hill tied Cypress Point record with 65 to lead David Graham by two strokes. Third round-Nicklaus fired a 70 (PB) to lead Morley by one.

CUT: After 54 holes 63 pros at 225. (Additional 13 pros at 226 exempt for Hawaii) Jerry McGee at 224 withdrew from final round. Team cut was 204 with 31 teams.

WEATHER: Mostly clear and sunny all week with temperatures in the 60s. Wind was a factor the final two days.

JANUARY 20-23

Tom Watson established a Crosby record winning score with a 273, 14- under par. He also set the 54-hole record of 202 with rounds of 66-69-67. The tournament went down to the final putt. Watson had held the lead all through the fourth round, but a determined Tony Jacklin made a match of it, and he trailed by only one going to the 18th. Jacklin, short of the green in three, pitched to three feet but missed his par putt. Afforded the cushion, Watson then made a bogey of his own, his 15-foot putt for par also missing the cup, and he settled for a 71.

The tournament reverted to an earlier incarnation, employing the Monterey Peninsula Country Club Shore Course for the first time in 10 years, because of repairs being made at Spyglass Hill. President Gerald Ford joined the Pro Am field for the second round after attending the Thursday inauguration of Jimmy Carter, and the Pro-Am also included two women. They were Nancy Lopez, then the Western Women's Amateur champion, and Marianne Bretton, a sophomore at UCLA and the California Women's Amateur champ.

LEADERS: First round-Hubert Green, 33-32-65, and Tom Watson, 32- 34-66, both at Pebble Beach set pace with Victor Regalado next at 67 at MPCC Shore. Second round-Regalado, with 67 at Pebble led at 134 with Watson, Lee Elder and Tony Jaddin at 135. Third round-Watson with 67 at MPCC took lead at 13-under-par 202, with Jacklin at 203 and Elder 204.

CUT: There were 73 professionals at 3-over-par 218 after 54 holes, but only low 60 and ties competed in final round. There were 62 at 217. Team play cut was 198 for low 30 and ties. There were 37 teams for final round.

WEATHER: Beautiful every day. Wind never was a factor.

Nathaniel Crosby stepped forward as tournament host following the death of his father the previous October. "I don't think we ever considered calling off the tournament," the 16-year-old Crosby said. "When he passed away, my mother asked me if I thought we should continue it and I said, 'Sure, let's put it on because it's what Dad wanted.'"

The first round was pushed back to Friday after an inch and a half of rain soaked the courses on Wednesday night. The delay didn't bother defending champion Tom Watson—he opened with a 66 at Cypress Point to take a three-stroke lead on the field.

Watson slipped to a 74 in the second round at Spyglass, regained a share of the lead with a 72 on Sunday at Pebble Beach and fired a 69 at Pebble in the final round. But he was caught by Ben Crenshaw, who shot a 67, for a deadlock at 280. Watson then won the playoff on the second extra hole, paring the 17th.

First-time celebrities included Lawrence Welk, Billy Kilmer and Willie Mays. Gibby Gilbert and Richard Gelb won the Pro-Am with a score of 260.

LEADERS: First round—Tom Watson with 6-under-par 66 (CP) led nine players by 3 strokes. Second round—Hale Irwin, Raymond Floyd and Tommy McGinnis tied at 5-under 139. Six players at 140. Third round—Floyd and Watson tied at 5-under 211 with six players tied at 212. CUT: 70 pros at 6 over par 222 after 54-holes. Only low 60 and ties to play final round, and there were 64 at 221. Team play cut to low 30 was 203 and there were 30.

WEATHER: First round washed out completely because of extremely wet conditions. Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday sunny and moderate, however, all courses very wet.

Sporting a five-stroke lead going into the final round, Lon Hinkle ballooned to a 77 and finished in a three-way tie with Andy Bean and Mark Hayes. Hinkle hung on to win by making a 12-foot birdie putt on the third extra hole.

Following the third round Hinkle was confident. "I like this," he said. "Mark has to give me two strokes on the front side and three on the back." But it was Hinkle who gave strokes-back to the course. His drive on the first hole stopped in a divot, and things went downhill from there.

However, Hayes also encountered problems. Alone in first place, he four-putted Pebble's 15th green from eight feet to fall back into a tie with Hinkle and Bean.

Bean and Bill Bunting, a 14-handicapper from Tampa, Florida, won the Pro-Am by eight strokes with a score of 257.

LEADERS: First round-Jay Haas, Graham Marsh and Mike McCullough with 4-under-par 68s led Mac McLendon, Gil Morgan and Bobby Nichols by one. Second round-Lon Hinkle 70-68-138 two in front of Leonard Thompson and Curtis Strange. Third round-Hinkle added a 69 for 207 to lead Mark Hayes, who had 66 at Pebble Beach, by five.

CUT: After 54-holes there were 78 pros at eight-over 224. Only low 60 and ties to play final round. There were 64 at 223 or less. Team play cut to 25 and ties was 205 and 32 teams made it.

WEATHER: Cloudy and windy first two days. Clearing Saturday. Beautiful Sunday. There was 18 minute delay at Pebble Beach and 15 minutes at Cypress and Spyglass due to frost on Saturday.

Defending champion Lon Hinkle knew it wasn't going to be his week when he lost the keys to his rental car and had to get a cab driver to smash the car's windows so he could get his golf clubs in order to play the first round. Hinkle shot a 74 and never was in contention.

The final round began with David Edwards, playing in his first Crosby, holding a three-stroke edge over Jack Nicklaus and George Burns. And when it ended Burns was holding his first tour victory check.

"Chalk one up for the funny swingers," said Burns, whose swing included a flying right elbow. He won with a 69, as Edwards shot a 75 and Nicklaus a 73.

LEADERS: First round-Tom Kite (CP) and Jerry Pate (CP) had 6-under par 66s with David Edwards (CP) at 67. Second round-Kite and Edwards had 70s at Spyglass to share lead at 136. Pate (SH) and Steve Melnyk (CP) at 137. Third round-Edwards (PB) 72 for lead at 208. Larry Nelson and Gil Morgan at 210.

CUT: 75 pros at 5-over 221, but only low 60 and ties compete in final round. (69 at 220). Team cut was 201 and there were 27 teams qualified.

WEATHER: Thursday-Overcast but warm. Friday-Sunny and pleasant. Saturday-Light rain. Sunday-Sunny.

"Crosby weather" returned with a vengeance, postponing the opening round for two days and shortening play to 54 holes. Jack Nicklaus and Roger Penske flew their jets to Palm Springs to get in practice rounds.

The Monday finale was a dandy, with John Cook, Hale Irwin, Bobby Clampett, Ben Crenshaw and Barney Thompson tying at 209, seven under par. The five-man playoff was a PGA Tour record.

The victory went to Cook on the third extra hole, his par putt eliminating Irwin after the other three had gone out on the first two holes. It was the first tour win for Cook, a former U.S. and California Amateur champion.

Hubert Green and amateur Chuck Van Linge both aced the 7th hole at Pebble Beach, and pro George Cadle and airline pilot Wheeler Farish won the Pro-Am with a score of 191, 25 under par for the 54 holes.

LEADERS: First round-John Cook had a 6-under-par 66 at Cypress Point and led Tom Watson (CP), Greg Powers (CP), Ben Crenshaw (CP) and Bobby Clampett (PB) by one stroke. Second round-Brad Bryant birdied the last three holes at Pebble Beach for a 67 and a 136 total to tie Watson, (PB). Cook (PB), Crenshaw (PB) and Jerry Pate (CP) were at 137.

CUT: After 54 holes there were 77 pros at 221 and below. Team cut to low 25 was 200.

WEATHER: Heavy rains forced postponement of first round until Saturday and tournament was cut to three rounds and concluded on Monday. Weather was beautiful Saturday, Sunday and Monday

The 41st Crosby began with an orange ball falling into the cup for a hole-in-one at Cypress Point's famous 16th and ended when a white ball was sucked off line toward the Pacific Ocean.

Jerry Pate made the ace at Cypress Point, Craig Stadler the off-line shot at Pebble Beach, his drive at the 17th landing on the rocks. Stadler's final-round bogey at the 17th helped put Jim Simons in command, and the stockbroker/golfer went on to birdie 17 and par 18 for a 66 and a two-stroke win. Simons' total of 14-under par 274 was a record for a Crosby that included play at Spyglass Hill.

Pate wasn't the only player using a non-white golf ball. Bruce Lietzke, the co-first-round leader, played a chartreuse ball.

LEADERS: First round-Bruce Lietzke (PB) and Forrest Fezler (CP) shot six-under par 66s and led by one over George Burns (PB) and Mark Lye (SH). Second round-Burns added a 69 (CP) for an 8-under-par 136 and was one ahead of Hal Sutton (CP) and Jim Simons (SH). Third round-Craig Stadler (CP) shot an 8-under-par 64 for a 10-under 206 total and led by two over Simons (SH).

CUT: 77 pros at five-over-par 221 after 54 holes, with the low 60 and ties competing Sunday-63 at 3-over-par 219. In team play, the cut was 15- under 201 for 31 teams. Low 25 and ties made cut to play Sunday.

WEATHER: Sunny and pleasant first three days. Cloudy on Sunday.

Unknown Ken Green opened a three-stroke lead on the field after the second round, but then Tom Kite took over. In Saturday's third round Kite fashioned a course-record 62 at Pebble Beach, and on Sunday, in the rain, he held off Calvin Peete and Rex Caldwell for a two-stroke victory.

Kite's 62 required only 21 putts-and just eight on the back nine, as he tossed in a 40-foot chip-in.

The victory was the fifth in Kite's 11-year career, and it required some steadying during the final round, as he bogeyed the 15th, 16th and 17th coming in. "I guess I was a little anxious to get my name on the (trophy) glass," he said. Kite shot a 12-under 276 for the four rounds. Green, who closed with a 76, finished in a tie for seventh place.

LEADERS: First round-Joe Inman shot a seven-under par 65 at Pebble Beach and led by one over Ken Green and Fred Couples. Second round-Green, with a 68 at Pebble, was at 10-under 134 and led by three over Gary McCord and Jim Thorpe. Third round-Tom Kite set a course record 10-under par 62 at Pebble Beach for a 13-under par 203 and led by two over Green, Rex Caldwell and Donnie Hammond.

CUT: 75 pros at one-over par 217 after 54 holes, with the low 60 (61 pros) playing the final round. Team cut was 17-under par 199, with 26 making it. Low 25 teams and ties make cut.

WEATHER: Cloudy and cool Thursday and Friday. Showers off and on Saturday and Sunday. Preferred lies (lift, clean and place within your own fairway) used all four days due to extremely wet conditions.

The 43rd Crosby will be remembered for golf balls striking foreign objects. Ex-President Gerald Ford beamed a woman spectator in the temple with a shanked tee ball at Spyglass's 15th hole during the second round. Hale Irwin conked the rocks off the 18th fairway at Pebble Beach.

Irwin's shot during the final round keyed one of the most memorable finishes in tournament history. With Jim Nelford the leader in the clubhouse at 10-under 278, Irwin came to the 18th tee trailing by a stroke. His drive veered left into the rocks, but, incredibly, ticked off a boulder and soared back to the fairway. Given new life, Irwin stroked a 3-wood, a sand wedge to five feet and sank the birdie putt to tie Nelford.

In the playoff, after both made par at the 15th, Irwin skied a 3-wood tee shot at the 16th, ending up in a fairway bunker with, he estimated, 213 yards to the pin. He then laced a perfect 2-iron to nine feet and sank that birdie putt for the win.

Ford and Irwin weren't the only players to hit strange shots. Dave Dalby, a former Oakland Raiders center in the Pro-Am, was asked how he was doing. "Well, so far I've hit a car and an outhouse," he said.

LEADERS: First round—Bob Murphy (SH), Jim Nelford (SH) and Thomas Gray (PB) shot 5-under-par 67 for 1-stroke lead over Willie Wood, Mark O'Meara and Corey Pavin. Second round—John Adams 67 (CP) and Willie Wood 69 (CP) led at 7-under-par 137, one ahead of Hale Irwin and Craig Stadler. Third round—Hale Irwin 68 (PB) had 206 total and two-stroke lead over David Edwards 69 (CP).

CUT: 73 pros at three-over-par 219 after 54 holes. Low 60 and ties competing Sunday, 61 pros at 218. In team play cut was 200 with 28 teams qualifying, seven tied at 200.

WEATHER: Sunny all four days of tournament.

In what would be the final Bing Crosby National Pro-Am, the wind almost blew the tournament into the Pacific Ocean. A first-round gale sent scores soaring and kicked up whitecaps on the surrounding seas. Only nine players broke par over the first 18 holes.

By the end of the third round, Mark O'Meara had taken charge at 6- under 210, with Curtis Strange two strokes behind. And when the tournament came down to the final hole, Pebble's 18th, they were still 1-2. O'Meara sank a par-saving 12-foot putt after being bunkered at the 17th and parred the 18th to maintain the lead, but had to sweat out Strange's 13-foot birdie try, which just missed, before claiming the victory.

Hale Irwin ran out of miracles at the 18th, his third-round tee shot finding the rocks left of the fairway. This time the ball stayed there.

Jack Nicklaus's amateur partner was his 23-year-old son Jackie.

LEADERS: First round-Johnny Miller 68 (CP) for one-stroke lead over T.C. Chen, George Archer and Willie Wood. Second round-Johnny Miller 71 (SH) and George Archer 70 (PB) 139, one-stroke lead over Brad Faxon 63. Third round-Mark O'Meara, 210, 68 (SH), two-stroke lead over Curtis Strange.

CUT: 73 players at 7-over-par 223, after 54 holes of play, with low 60 and ties (63) competing on Sunday. Team cut (low 25 and ties) was 204, 12 under par, with 29 teams making cut, eight at 204.

WEATHER: Sunny, cold and windy on Thursday; sunny on Friday; sunny but windy on Saturday. Showers Sunday morning, clear in afternoon.

JANUARY 30-FEBRUARY 2

It was a stormy start for new title sponsor AT&T. A decision by PGA Tour officials to play summer rules at soggy Spyglass Hill on Thursday angered some pros. On Friday a storm off the Pacific forced postponement of the second round. And on Monday another storm forced cancellation of the final round.

Third-round leader Fuzzy Zoeller was declared the winner of the tourney. He had opened a five-stroke lead on the field after 54 holes. Zoeller's 11-under 205 was five shots better than runnerup Payne Stewart.

Zoeller and partner Mike Evans also won the Pro-Am, with a score of 193.

LEADERS: First round-Kikuo Arai (PB) and Willie Wood (PB) had 4- under-par 68s and led by one over Fuzzy Zoeller (SH), Peter Jacobsen (CP) and John McComish (CP). Second round-Zoeller added a 66 (PB) for 9-under-par 135. Tom Watson (SH) at 138.

CUT: 71 players at 5-over-par 221 after 54 holes. Only low 60 and ties (61 players) compete on final day. The "60 cut" was 220. Team cut (low 25 and ties) was 203 with 26 teams surviving.

WEATHER: Thursday, one-hour delay due to heavy rain. Friday, play never started due to heavy rain. Saturday and Sunday, mostly cloudy. Monday, play cancelled due to heavy rain at 11:10. Tournament declared official after 54-holes. AT&T paid full purse.

A surprise first-round leader and a surprise fourth-round winner marked the second installment of the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Struggling, 12-year veteran Rex Caldwell shot a 67 at Pebble Beach for the early lead, but in the end, Johnny Miller came from off the leaderboard to edge Payne Stewart.

Caldwell's chances for winning were shot by a quadruple-bogey 8 on the 18th hole at Cypress Point, one of his balls bouncing off a tree branch and hitting his caddie in the stomach. Miller, meanwhile, reached contention with a 68 at Pebble Beach during Saturday's third round, but still trailed Payne Stewart by five strokes.

On Sunday Miller, 39, hammered Pebble for seven birdies and a 66, then waited 40 minutes to see if he could be caught. Stewart had a 25-foot putt for birdie and a tie at the 18th but missed.

A record crowd of 48,815 viewed Saturday's round. In the Pro-Am, Fred Couples and baseball star George Brett, given a 17 handicap, treamed for the win.

LEADERS: First round-Rex Caldwell shot 5-under-par 67 at Pebble for 1-stroke lead over John Adams, Tom Byrum, Sandy Lyle and Lanny Wadkins. Second round-Wadkins (SH) added 69 for 137 and 1-stroke lead over Payne Stewart (SH). Third round-Stewart shot 69 (PB) for 207 and 2-stroke lead over Lyle 70, Bernhard Langer 68, and Wadkins 72, who tied at 209.

CUT: 82 players at 4-over-par 220, but only low 60 and ties (69 players) competed in final round. The "60 Cut" was 219. Team cut (low 25 and ties) was 198 with 26 teams making it.

WEATHER: Light rain Thursday morning and partly cloudy rest of day. Partly clearing on Friday and sunny on Saturday and Sunday.

Steve Jones survived a playoff with Bob Tway for his first tour victory.

Jones carded a second-round 64 at Cypress Point to reach the top of the leaderboard and survived a final-round 74 at Pebble Beach to win the $126,000 first prize.

Jones' 74 gave him a total of 8-under 280, which was matched by Tway when he shot a final-round 68. In the playoff Jones sank an 18-foot birdie putt at the 17th hole for the win.

Greg Norman shot a closing 66 and finished one-stroke out of the playoff.

LEADERS: First round-Mark Calcavecchia, Jim Booros and Jim Gallagher all had 5-under-par 67s, with six players tied at 68. Second round-Steve Jones equalled the course record at Cypress Point with an 8-under-par 64 to share lead with Calcavecchia at 136, 8-under-par. Third round-Jones added a 70 at Spyglass Hill for a 206 total and a 3-stroke lead over Bernhard Langer and Craig Stadler.

CUT: 77 players at 4-over-par 220, but only low 60 and ties (63 at 218) competed in final round. Team cut to 25 teams and ties was at 200 with 29 teams in the field.

WEATHER: Near perfect every day. Slight chill in the air and some breeze on Saturday.

Mark O'Meara returned to the winner's circle with a classic finish, sinking a 10-foot birdie putt at the 18th green to edge Tom Kite by a stroke.

It was the first victory in the U.S. for O'Meara since his triumph in the 1985 Crosby. "When I saw that putt going into the hole, I almost had a heart attack," O'Meara exclaimed. "I was hyperventilating."

Dave Stockton, 47, had held the lead after the first round, shooting a 65 at Pebble. Jack Nicklaus, 49, was in contention after two rounds but blew to an 80 on Saturday at Pebble.

LEADERS: First round-Dave Stockton birdied last three holes (PB) for 7-under-par 65, led Mark O'Meara (CP) and Nick Price (CP) by one stroke. Second round-O'Meara (SH) added 68 for 134 and led Stockton (CP) by one stroke. Third round-O'Meara (PB) had 71 for 207 and was tied with Nick Price (PB) who had 67. Tom Kite (PB) and Bernhard Langer tied at 209.

CUT: 76 players at 3-over-par 219, but only low 60 pros and ties (67 at 2- over-par 218) competed in final round. Team cut (25 teams) was 200 and 30 teams made cut.

WEATHER: Slight chill in the air, but beautiful every day.

Mark O'Meara won his third National Pro-Am in six years, and he did it with his father, Bob, as his amateur partner. O'Meara joined Jack Nicklaus as a three-time winner.

O'Meara, who also won the 1979 California Amateur at Pebble Beach, opened the final round with a one-stroke lead over Rocco Mediate, shot par 72 for a 281 and finished two strokes in front of Kenny Perry.

In the Pro-Am, Hubert Green and Dean Spanos were the winners, teaming for a 28-under 260.

LEADERS: First round-Payne Stewart (CP) with 6-under-par 66, led Mark O'Meara by one. Second round-Stewart and Rocco Mediate led at 7-under-par 137, one ahead of Tom Kite. Third round-O'Meara at 7-under-par 209, led Mediate by one.

CUT: 78 players at 6-over-par 222, but only low 60 and ties (62 at 5-over-par 221) competed in final round. Team cut was (25 teams) at 203. 29 teams made it.

WEATHER: Thursday mostly cloudy with some rain showers. Friday-mostly sunny and breezy. Saturday-overcast with winds up to 40 mph. Play suspended at 4:45 at Cypress Point with four groups (eight pros) unable to complete 17th and 18th holes. Sunday-Sunny but cool. Winds 15-20 mph.

JANUARY 31-FEBRUARY 3

Cypress Point, a tournament venue since 1947, was succeeded by the newer Poppy Hills, which quickly earned the respect of the tour pros. "It definitely has the attention of the players," said pro Mike Hulbert. "I don't know if you can shoot a good round there and win the tournament, but you sure could lose it there."

In the third round Paul Azinger needed 73 strokes to get around Poppy and later grouched that "the best hole on that course is the 19th." But by Sunday afternoon he wasn't complaining; he eagled Pebble's 2nd hole and cruised to a 67 for a four-stroke win over Corey Pavin and Brian Claar. Azinger pocketed $198,000 from the record $1.1 million purse.

John Cook and TV soap opera star Jack Wagner won the Pro-Am with a score of 33-under 255.

LEADERS: First round-Mike Standly (PB) had 7-under-par 65 and led John Cook (PH) and Brian Claar (SH) by one stroke. Second round-Paul Azinger (SH-PB) had second 5-under par 67 for 134 and led Rocco Mediate (PH) 67 and Jay Delsing (PB) 68 by two. Third round-Mediate (SH) had 69 for 11-under-par 205. Davis Love III at 206.

CUT: 73 pros at 2-over-par 218, but only low 60 and ties (64 at 1-over 217) play the final round. Team cut (25 teams) was 199 with 25 teams making it.

WEATHER: Thursday-sunny. Friday-morning overcast, afternoon sunny. Saturday-Start of play delayed 1 1/2 hours by heavy rain and strong winds. Cleared at 10 a.m. Sunday was beautiful day.

Ideal, warm conditions greeted the field in 1992, and it responded with one of the most memorable assaults on par in the history of the tournament. Mark Wiebe and Jeff Sluman led the way in the first round with 64s at Pebble Beach, tying the course record for playing the ball down, and 75 pros in all broke par on the three tournament courses.

Bob Lohr and Patrick Henry Horgan III took over the lead after 36 holes, but were only a stroke in front of Sluman, three-time Crosby / AT&T winner Mark O'Meara, Lanny Wadkins and Tom Sieciemann. Comedian Bill Murray, a first-time competitor, emerged as a gallery favorite. The "Caddyshack" star charmed all he encountered by wearing a cap shaped like the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. And on the 1st tee at Spyglass Hill, Murray brought a little show-business to his round, "taking 10" to down a beer and polish off a polish dog before teeing off.

O'Meara fired a third-round 68 at Pebble Beach to take a two-stroke lead over Sluman. Paul Azinger and Raymond Floyd tied Pebble's course record with 68s, and it took a tournament record score of 1-under 215 to make the cut.

The final round went to a playoff as O'Meara and Sluman tied at 13-under-par 275, O'Meara shooting a 70 and Sluman a 68. O'Meara sank a 35-foot birdie putt from against the fringe at the 72nd hole to force sudden death, then drained a 12-footer for a winning par on the first extra hole.

"I just must be the Pro-Am king or something," said O'Meara, whose victories at Pebble also include the AT&Ts in 1989 and 1990; the Crosby in 1985, and the California Amateur in 1979.

Greg Norman and 20-handicap partner Kerry Packer won the pro-am division with a score of 42-under-par 246.

LEADERS: First round-Mark Wiebe (PB) and Jeff Sluman (PB) shot 8-under-par 64s and led J. P. Horgan (PB) and Tom Purtzer (PB) by two strokes.

Second round-Horgan added a 70 (SH) and Bob Lohr (PB) shot 67 to share 36-hole lead at 136. Sluman, Mark O'Meara, Lanny Wadkins and Tom Sieciemann were tied at 137. Third round-O'Meara moved into 54-hole lead with 68 (PB) for a 205 total. Sluman with 70 at Poppy Hills was at 207 and Paul Azinger and Ray Floyd, both with 64s at Pebble Beach were tied at 208.

CUT: 82 pros at even par 216, but only low 60 and ties (68) at 1-underpar 215 played Sunday. Team cut was 20-under-par 196 with 26 teams playing final round.

WEATHER: Spectacular every day. Rain Friday night, but skies had cleared before Saturday's play started.

Rain on Wednesday afternoon helped soften up the courses, but a beautiful day greeted players on Thursday with the temperature reaching 68 and David Frost recording a 66 at Pebble Beach to take the first round lead. The weather turned to semi-cloudy on Friday with brisk winds in the afternoon and a high of 57. But it didn't phase rookie Brett Ogle of Australia, who posted his second straight 68 at Poppy Hills to grab the lead with an eight-under-par 136.

Ogle added a 69 at Spyglass Hill on Saturday to widen his lead to two strokes over Bill Ray Brown. Dan Forsman registered a course record 64 at Spyglass Hill to vault into a tie for third at 208.

Ogle's one-under-par 71 on Sunday gave him a 276 and a three-stroke edge over Brown, and his first PGA Tour victory.

Forty-three professionals finished under par for the 72 holes.

Professional Payne Stewart and amateur Jim Morris won the Pro-Am title with a score of 257, one stroke ahead of four rivals. Morris helped Stewart 26 strokes. Ken Bowden won the Levi Straus award for the amateur helping his professional the most, contributing 32 strokes for Perry Moss, who had an individual score of 290. The team tied for second at 258.

LEADERS: First round-David Frost (PB) shot six-under-par 66 for a one-stroke lead over Mark Brooks (PB). Second round-Rookie Brett Ogle (SH) shot his second 68 for an eight-under total of 136 to hold a one-stroke advantage over Brooks (PH) 70, and Lennie Clements (PH) 67. Third round-Ogle (SH) added a three-under 69 move into a two-stroke lead over Billy Ray Brown (PB) 69. Three-way tie for third at 8-under 208 included Dan Forsman, who registered a course record 64 at Spyglass Hill. Others at 208 were Gil Morgan (PB) 69 and Trevor Dodds (SH) 70. CUT: 82 pros at two-over-par 218, but only the low 60 pros and ties (69 players at one-over-par 217 played the final round). Team cut was 19- under-par 197 with an even 25 teams qualifying for the final round. (Low 25 teams and ties.)

WEATHER: Tournament opened with beautiful day Thurs-day. Friday overcast and light rain started about 3:30 p.m. Semi-cloudy and windy on Saturday. High overcast Sunday and rain started about 2:30 p.m.

Brett Ogle swept in the previous year and won the AT&T National Pro-Am on his first try.

But things were a lot different in 1994. Ogle didn't make the 54-hole cut, shooting 76-73-73-222.

Meanwhile, two veterans, who have won here before, waged a final day battle before Johnny Miller, a 46-year-old who almost had decided he was too old to compete on the regular tour, fought off Tom Watson to win. It was Miller's second victory over 72 holes (1987-1994) and third overall. He won a rain-shortened 54-hole tournament (1974).

"It's nice to let people know that I still can play the Tour. I didn't know if my putting would hold up. I came here to have fun, but the weather changed in my favor."

Watson, who won the Pro-Am in 1977 and 1978 and the U.S. Open title here in 1982 said he played well enough to win, "but I didn't putt well enough to win.

Watson, who started the final round one stroke behind Miller, had a one shot lead going to the 16th hole. But he three putted there and three putted again on the 17th. His approach on the final hole carried past the pin and he missed his birdie attempt which might have earned him a tie.

Dudley Hart got the tournament off to a fast start with a new course record of 65, seven-under-par, at Poppy Hills. Davis Love III had a 66 Friday at Pebble Beach to lead at the half-way mark with 135. Hart regained the lead on Saturday with a 70 at Spyglass Hill for 206 with Miller at 207 and Watson 208.

Hart and Robert Floyd, son of professional Raymond Floyd, won the pro-am title with a 258 total. Steve John, a 4-handicap, won the Levi Strauss trophy for the amateur helping his professional the most, contributing 31 strokes. Professional Glen Day had an individual score of 296. The team posted a score of 265. Bishop William E. Swing helped professional Robin Freeman 30 strokes.

LEADERS: First round—Dudley Hart, who never had survived the cut in three previous AT&T National Pro-Ams, set a new Poppy Hills course record with a seven-under-par 65 to claim a one stroke lead over Jay Delsing. Second round—Davis Love III posted a 66 (PB) for a two-day total of 135, one stroke ahead of Hart and Tom Watson. Third round—Hart regained the lead with a 70 (SH) for 206 with Johnny Miller, 67 (PB) one stroke behind.

CUT: 72 professionals at one-over par, 217 played the final round.

WEATHER: High overcast on Thursday. Sunny, warm, great day on Friday. Scattered clouds on Saturday. Showers starting at 7:30 a.m., and increasing in density until 11:30 when they slacked off. Winds of 30 to 35 mph whipped course until 12:30. Even when they quieted down it was very cold. Drizzle early Sunday threatened the final round, but heavy rains held off until just after the final putt was drained.

Twenty-six days of rain in January produced a new format for the 1995 AT&T National Pro-Am golf tournament.

For the first time since it moved to the Monterey Peninsula in 1947, no practice rounds were played on any of the three tournament courses prior to the start of competition. And, another first, players were allowed to lift, clean and place their ball during all three rounds because of the soggy condition of the courses.

Peter Jacobsen won the individual pro championship with three subpar rounds and a 17-under-par total of 271, but he wasn't able to get amateur partner Jack Lemmon into the final round for the first time. The cutoff in the Pro-Am was 195 and Jacobsen and Lemmon posted a 200.

They were 10-under-par on the 18th tee at Poppy Hills on Saturday. Jacobsen took a 7 on the par-5 hole. Lemmon needed a par to get them into the final round. He couldn't do it and took a 9.

Jacobsen claimed three new tournament records. His winning mark of 271 bettered the old 72-hole mark of 273 set by Tom Watson in 1977. His final round of 65 clipped one stroke off the old record set by Jim Simons in 1982 and tied by Johnny Miller in 1987, and his final 36-hole total of 66-65-131 bettered the old mark of 68-66-134 by Miller in 1987.

Jacobsen and Lemmon have played together 14 years. The closest they have come to making the cut was in 1991 and 1994. Both years they missed by only two strokes.

"Winning the tournament isn't as important as Lemmon making the cut," said Jacobsen. "Jack came out and walked the first five holes with me on Sunday. He would have loved to have been playing."

David Duval, a rookie coming off the 1994 Nike Tour, claimed second place with a score of 273. Duval had three straight rounds of 67 after opening with a par 72.

Duval also won the Pro-Am title. Paired with Hughes Norton, a 9-handicapper, they checked in with 254 34 under. Jack Nicklaus, playing with his son Steve, finished second at 255. Pro Bruce Vaughan, playing with Masashi Yamada, actually turned in the lowest score, a 251. But they were disqualified because it was ruled Yamada had an incorrect handicap. Vaughan was allowed to keep his first-place check.

LEADERS: First round—Davis Love III (PH) shot a 7-under-par 65 and led Nick Faldo (PH) by a stroke. Second round—Brad Faxon (PH), at 10-under-par 134, led by one over Guy Boros (PB), Fuzzy Zoeller (PB), and Tom Watson (SH). Third round—Kenny Perry (PB), at 13-under-par 203, led by three over Boros (SH), Faxon (PB), David Duval (PB), and Peter Jacobsen (PB).

CUT: 75 players at 1-under-par 215. 65 played on Sunday at 2-under-par 214. Team cut was 20-under-par 196.

WEATHER: Sunny and warm on Thursday and Friday. Saturday and Sunday were overcast with some fog.

Rain, wind and soggy conditions caused cancellation of the 1996 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am tournament.

It was the first time in the 50 years of the event that it could not be completed. And it was the first time a PGA Tour event could not be completed since the 1949 Colonial.

Play was called at noon Sunday after two rounds.

It was especially disappointing for Jeff Maggert, who held a one-stroke lead after the 36 holes.

"But they made the right decision," said Maggert, who had fired two straight 68s for a 136 score, said. "You have to play by the rules—you can't change them in the middle of a tournament."

Tournament Director Louis Russo announced two holes at Spyglass Hill Nos. 11 and 16 were partly under water and it would not be fair to ask one third of the field to play them under such difficult conditions.

Justin Leonard, 23-year-old U.S. Amateur champion, and John Elliott, 32, a Nike Tour graduate, shot 67s to tie for the first-round lead. Leonard toured Poppy Hills and Elliott played Pebble Beach.

Maggert soared to the lead Friday at Pebble Beach. After a lacklustre front nine, he posted four straight birdies on the back side to finish strong.

"I always seem to play well at Pebble Beach," Maggert said.

The prospect of an exciting finish on the weekend was heightened by the rise of Tom Watson, whose 69 Friday at Spyglass Hill left him trailing Maggert by two shots.

Watson, who had won the tournament twice as well as the 1982 U.S. Open at Pebble Beach, was scheduled to play the final two rounds at that course.

"I love the course—I just have to go out and try to win myself a golf tournament," he said after Friday's play. But Saturday's play was washed out, as well as Sunday's.

Loren Roberts, Steve Jones and Davis Love III, all at 137, were Maggert's closest pursuers.

The team of Howard Clark and amateur Michael Enthoven was the pro-am leader at 20-under-par 124 when play was halted.

LEADERS: First round—Justin Leonard (PH) and John Elliott (PB) had 5- under 67s to share first place. Eleven players logged 68s to sit one shot back. Second round—Jeff Maggert (PH-PB) fired a 68 for a 136 to lead Loren Roberts (PB-SH), Steve Jones (PH-SH) and Davis Love III (SH-PH) by a stroke.

WEATHER: Thursday—sunny morning, overcast in afternoon. Friday—overcast. Saturday and Sunday—rain on and off.

Mark O'Meara, apparently intent on becoming a legend on the Monterey Peninsula, won his fifth Crosby / AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am with a one-stroke victory over hard-charging Tiger Woods and David Duval.

The veteran O'Meara, 40, posted a record-breaking 20-under-par 268 to nip rookie sensation Woods, who started Sunday seven shots behind, and third-round leader Duval.

In an event where nary a drop of rain fell, O'Meara logged four straight 67s. But he had to finish with birdies on 16 and 17 at Pebble Beach to ward off his pursuers. Woods, who closed with a 63 and 64 at Pebble Beach, needed to eagle the par-5 18th to tie O'Meara. His 267-yard 3-wood reached the green, but his 35-foot putt slipped past the hole.

Duval, who had tied Pebble's course record with a 62 Saturday, could only post a 71 on Sunday despite a final-hole birdie.

"If I'm going to have success, I couldn't ask for a better place to find it than Pebble Beach," O'Meara said. "Somebody up there is looking after me. I don't know if it's the blimp, or somewhere higher."

Paul Stankowski teamed with actor Andy Garcia to capture the Pro-Am division. Garcia, an 18 handicapper, credited a hot putter for his showing. Their 43-under-par 245 was a tournament record.

LEADERS: First round—Jesper Parnevik and David Duval posted 65s at Poppy Hills to lead Brian Henninger (PH), Billy Andrade (SH) and Tom Lehman (PH) by a stroke. Second round—Jim Furyk (PH), at 12-under 132, led by one over David Frost (PB). Third round—Duval (PB), at 18-under 198, led Mark O'Meara (PB) and Furyk (PB) by three shots.

CUT: 75 pros made the cut at 3-under 213; 65 pros played on Sunday at 4-under 212. Team cut was 24 under.

WEATHER: Sunny and warm Thursday, mostly overcast Friday and Saturday, sunny and cool Sunday.

Phil Mickelson had to wait six months and twenty days, but the $550,000 bonanza made it worthwhile.

In what was billed the longest-running golf tournament in the world, the 1998 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-am started January 29 and finished August 17. El Niño engendered storms ravaged the Monterey Peninsula, restricting play to but 36 holes-nine on Thursday, nine on Friday and 18 on Saturday. When rains hit Sunday and Monday, it was decided to postpone the final round. The date of August 17 was chosen because most pros, completing the PGA Championship August 16 in Redmond, WA, could fly to Pebble Beach on a charter the next day to finish the $2.5 million event.

"It was weird to have kind of a one-round tournament," said Mickelson, "but after (the AT&T cancellation) in 1996, I was glad they decided to finish this thing, and not just because I won. This (victory) means a lot to me. It was a special day"

The left-handed swinging Mickelson (65-70-67), who was only one shot behind after the first and second rounds, fired a 67 at Pebble Beach to post his 14-under-par 202 and nip Tom Pernice, Jr. (67-69-67) by a stroke. The first prize was $450,000 and Mickelson picked up $100,000 more as a bonus for leading the PGA's West Coast swing in money winnings. The 202 tied for the lowest score in tournament history. Cary Middlecoff shot his 202 in 1956 when it was a scheduled 54-hole event.

Because the 125 pros (out of 168) who returned to the event on August 17 were spread over three courses, Mickelson often wasn't sure how he stood coming down the stretch. But friends told him on the 18th tee that he was tied with Pernice, who was forging his 67 at Poppy Hills. Mickelson opted to go for the win on the scary par-5 hole, lacing a perfect drive and then hitting a 2 iron 244 yards to 30 feet from the cup. He easily two-putted for his birdie to wrap it up.

Tom Watson and Tim Herron, who were tied for the lead after 36 holes, faded in the final round. Watson, fighting a balky putter, shot 72 at Poppy Hills and Herron slipped to a 74 at Spyglass.

The lift, clean and place rule was in effect for all three rounds.

To ease the traffic on water-logged greens, officials cancelled competition for the amateurs after two rounds. John Purcell of Carmel and pro Gary Nicklaus were leading with a 20-under 122. The decision was a heartbreaker for actor Jack Lemmon, who was 16 under with pro Peter Jacobsen and in a position to make the cut for the first time.

"Jack and Peter had a lock on making it," singer Huey Lewis said. "I wish we could have finished. This is what it's all about, trying to hit the ball with the wind blowing the club out of your hands. I'd play in a hurricane or a snowstorm at Pebble Beach."

LEADERS: First round-Tom Lehman shot 64 at Pebble Beach and led Mickelson (PB) by one stroke and five others Tom Watson (SH), Jesper Pamevik (PB), David Toms (PB), Fulton Allem (SH) and Tom Pernice, Jr. (PB)-by two strokes. Second round-Watson (PB) and Tim Herron (PH), at 10 under-par 134, were tied for the lead, with Lehman (PH), Mickelson (SH) and Jay Haas (PB) at 135.

WEATHER: Thursday-rain limited play to nine holes. Friday-mostly sunny. Saturday-light rain in morning gave way to afternoon sun. Sunday and Monday-storms forced postponement of third round. Monday, August 17-dry, mostly overcast and cool.

NOTE: 43 golfers did not return for final round in August.

The thought never occurred to Payne Stewart when he knocked his approach iron Saturday to within a foot of the hole on No. 18 at Spyglass Hill that the shot might win him the 1999 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-am Tournament.

Stewart had just bogeyed the 17th to fall into a tie for the lead with Frank Lickliter at 9 under par. But his 5-iron gem on the par-4 18th for a tap-in birdie was good enough to give him a 73 and a 10-under 206 in the rain-shortened, 54-hole event.

But that win - and his subsequent win at the 1999 U.S. Open in Pinehurst, North Carolina-signaled to Stewart far more than his status as a champion.

"I see coming to Pebble Beach as a symbol of my rebirth," Stewart said in a September 1999 interview regarding his planned appearances at the 2000 AT&T and U.S. Open events. "To wear the champion's crown there will mean more to me than just simply as a golfer."

Sadly and tragically, Stewart lost his life, along with five others, October 25, 1999, in an airplane crash. But he left at the top of his game, both as a human being and as a golfer.

Unmistakable on the course in his knickers and Hogan cap, Stewart wielded a smooth, elegant and completely controlled swing. He embodied the spirit of the game, often participating in charitable activities surrounding a tournament. Those included the star-studded Pro-Am Shoot-Out and his turn as a harmonica-playing vocalist with Jake Trout and the Flounders, a musical group of touring pros.

Perhaps Stewart's most cherished visit to Pebble Beach was the 1993 Pro-Am, where he finished tied for ninth, at five under par. What meant the most to him was his win of the pro-am portion of the competition with his partner Jim Morris, a close friend of Stewart's father, who had died in 1987.

"It's like playing with my Dad," Stewart said after accepting the trophy. "Since I didn't get the opportunity to do that, this means a lot to me."

Pebble Beach and the world of golf will no longer have the opportunity to celebrate the game with Stewart. But there will be many joyous reminders of his spirit...

After pleasant weather the first two days, high winds hit the three courses Saturday. Some players teed off Sunday in the rain and wind, but tour officials suspended play at mid-morning and officially canceled the fourth round at 2 p.m. It was only the fifth time the tournament was cut off at 54-holes since it went to a 72-hole format in 1958.

For Stewart, it was his first PGA Tour victory since the 1995 Houston Open. While Stewart's birdie Saturday at 18 didn't seem significant to him at the time, his amateur partner Jim Morris had a good feeling.

"I really thought the tournament was over when he hit that shot," said Morris, who had teamed with Stewart to capture the 1993 pro-am title.

Stewart, 42, who banked $504,000 with the victory, said he wanted to go the full 72 holes to prove to himself that he was really back.

"I wanted that opportunity," said Stewart. "But I'm not going to lie-it feels pretty good. I'm going to take this and run."

Stewart, who had posted a brilliant 64 Friday at Poppy Hills, got his big break in the pairings. Spyglass is mostly protected by trees, keeping him out of the winds that swept the Monterey Peninsula on Saturday. The average score Saturday at the more exposed Pebble Beach was 79.38, compared to 75.5 at Spyglass and 75.23 at Poppy Hills.

It wasn't a total disappointment for Lickliter (68-68-71-207). His runner-up finish was his best on tour and earned him $302,400. He also picked up $7,000 for winning the pro-am division with 12-handicapper Robert MacDonnel, an investment banker from Hillborough, CA. They shot 63-65-66 and actually finished in a three-way tie at 22-under-par 194 with pro Craig Stadler and amateur Glenn Frey and pro Neal Landcaster and amateur Robert Scott. But the tie-breaker was which pro scored the lowest, and Lickliter's 207 nipped Stadler's 209 and Lancaster's 211. LEADERS: First round-Greg Kraft (PB), Brett Quigley (PB) and Peter Jacobsen (PH) fired 6-under 66s. Second round-Payne Stewart (PH) at 11-under 133, was three ahead of Frank Lickliter (PH) and Vijay Singh (PH) at 8-under 136. Third Round-Stewart (SH), at 10-under 206, held a one-stroke lead over Lickliter (SH). Craig Stadler (PH) was three back. Fred Couples (PH), Ronnie Black (SH), Justin Leonard (SH) and Jay Williamson (SH) trailed by four.

CUT: After 54 holes, 70 players at 4-over-par 220 from a field of 180 made cut. Of the 70, 65 were due to play on Sunday. five made the cut and got official money, but weren't listed to play final round. Pro-am cut was 199, with 25 teams to play Sunday.

WEATHER: Beautiful Thursday and Friday, with gentle winds. Saturday - overcast, with winds averaging 25 mph, gusting to 50. Sunday - steady rain with 25-mph wind. Lift, clean and place rule in effect first three rounds on all courses. Play suspended at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, with final round canceled by 2 p.m.

Despite his well-earned reputation for doing the impossible on golf courses, there didn't seem to be any way Tiger Woods could win the 2000 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am tournament.

Sure, he was five strokes behind going into the final round and that was no big deal. But after 11 holes he was seven shots in arrears, with five rivals in front of him. Even the most devoted of Tiger's Troupe were looking to the exit gates. Mistake.

Big Mistake.

It would take a spectacular rally by Woods combined with a breakdown by surging tournament leader Matt Gogel for the implausible to become reality. Woods missed birdie putts at 12 and 14, but his game was clearly heating up. Then, the memorable par-4 15th. Woods' 97-yard wedge landed four feet from the cup and trickled into the hole for an eagle.

"I'm back in it," Woods said with a wide grin to amateur partner Jerry Chang.

And how! His approach shot at 16 missed the cup by an inch and he made the easy birdie putt. Those shots at 15 and 16 were described by Sports Illustrated as "what may be, given the circumstances, the best back-to-back approach shots ever seen on the PGA Tour."

Woods topped off his brilliant round of 64—best finish by a winner in the 53-year history of the tournament—with a birdie at 18. That put him at 15-under 273.

Now it was up to Gogel, a 29-year-old tour rookie seeking his first win, to hang on to an evaporating lead. Bogeys at 11 and 12 staggered Gogel, who had played the front nine in 5-under-par-31. Marching along a half-hour behind Woods, Gogel didn't know Woods had taken the lead until he got to the 16th hole.

"I really thought it was Vijay (Singh) or Notah (Begay) who were one or two strokes behind me," Gogel said. "To see Tiger's name, well, I was amazed. I will not be amazed anymore."

Even at that, Gogel could have forced a playoff with a birdie at the ocean-lined 18th. But his 10-foot putt slid 2-feet long. And, showing his inexperience, he missed the par putt - an error that cost him $80,000.

"I just got careless," said Gogel, whose 40 on the back nine for 71 and 274 earned him $352,000 and left him tied for second with Singh.

The victory was Woods' sixth in a row on the PGA Tour, tying Ben Hogan's streak in 1948. It also ended Woods' run (he lost the following week to Phil Mickelson in the Buick Invitational at La Jolla, CA). Woods pocketed $720,000, plus an extra $7,500 in the pro-am division, for his work on the Monterey Peninsula.

"I was aiming for a 64," Woods said of his AT&T histrionics. "I just tried to keep plodding along and post a number early. I just wanted to give myself a chance. I like being in a position coming from behind. There's definitely less pressure that way."

Rain and wind interrupted play on Thursday and prompted PGA Tour officials to act decisively. They announced the first round would be completed Friday and the event would go 72 holes if at all possible. That sent the tournament into Monday, keeping dozens of media from around the world on site to witness Tiger Woods' greatest comeback of his 17 PGA Tour victories.

Pro Skip Kendall and amateur partner David Gill, a farmer from King City, CA, shot 64, 63, 58, 64, and 249 to capture the pro-am side. They were 39 under par-four under the tournament record of 43. Their best-ball 58 on Sunday tied three other teams for the lowest score in the history of the event. Gill, a 5-handicapper, also won the Most Valuable Amateur Award for helping his pro the most-35 strokes over 72 holes.

LEADERS: First round-Vijay Singh (PH), David Duval (PH) and Notah Begay (PH) shared lead with 66s to front four players by one shot. Second round-Singh (PB) fired bogey-free 67 to total 11-under-par 133, good for one-stroke lead over Begay (PB). Third Round-Matt Gogel (PB) and Mark Brooks (PH) shared lead at 12-under 204, with Singh (PH) one shot back.

CUT: After 54 holes, 70 players at 1-over-par 217 from a field of 180 pros. Sixty played on Monday at even-par 216. Team cut was 18- under 198, with 25 teams playing Monday.

WEATHER: Lift, clean and place rule was in effect through the greens for all four rounds on all courses. Tour officials suspended play at 11:27 a.m. Thursday because of rain and 25-30 mph winds, gusting to 45.

At 2:10 p.m. the first round was officially postponed to 10 a.m. Friday. On Friday, light morning rain gave way to afternoon sun. Scattered showers and light winds greeted players on Saturday. Sunday was partly sunny, with temperatures in low 60s. Fog suspended morning play briefly at Poppy Hills and Pebble Beach and for more than an hour at Spyglass Hill. On Monday, it was cool and cloudy.

The 2001 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am probably can best be described as glorious.

That's one glorious for the weather-four days of warmth and sunshine. And another glorious to describe the game of Davis Love III, who roared from seven shots behind the leaders on Sunday to win his first PGA Tour event in almost three years.

Love did it in record style. Like, how about a 28 on the front nine, which tied the tournament record and was only one stroke shy of the all-time PGA Tour mark? And in going eight under par after seven holes, Love tied the longest consecutive birdie-eagle streak in tour history. He also equaled the best final-round, come-from-behind triumph in Crosby-AT&T history (1961 winner Bob Rosburg also started the last round seven shots back).

After shooting 71-71-69 for a seven-under 209, Love was tied with five other pros in 14th place Saturday night.

"I didn't think I had a chance to win, yet I recalled Tiger (Woods) was seven behind with seven holes to play last year (2000) and won, so you never know," Love said. But after needing only 20 strokes on the first seven holes, which included an 108-yard pitch-in for an eagle at No. 2, Love found himself leading the event. He managed a one-under 35 on the back nine for a 63, producing the lowest round in tournament history not played under lift-clean-place conditions.

Love's 16-under-par gem gave him a 272 total and a one-shot victory over Vijay Singh. Love had to wait 45 minutes to claim his trophy because his closest pursuers were still on the course. Singh's bid died when he drove into the ocean at 17. Phil Mickelson put on a stretch run, birdieing 16 and 17. He needed a birdie at 18 to tie, but his try to reach the green in two failed when he hit driver from the fairway into the ocean.

Defending champion Woods finished 13th, eight shots back, and never was a serious threat.

The Tiger Woods-Jerry Chang and the Mickelson-Kenny G teams tied for first place in the pro-am division. Their 254s were 34 under par. It was ruled they would share the title rather than go into a playoff. Scott McNealy of Portola Valley won the most-valuable-amateur award, given to the player who helps his pro the most over 72 holes. McNealy contributed 35 strokes in aiding pro Jesper Parnevik to their sixth-place finish.

The lift-clean-place rule was in effect all three days at Spyglass Hill and Poppy Hills, but entrants played the ball down at Pebble Beach for the four rounds.

LEADERS: First round-David Berganio Jr. tied the course record at Spyglass Hill with a 64. Second round-Matt Gogel broke the PoppyHills course record with a 10-under-par 62 for a 13-under 131 and led by three shots over Vijay Singh. Third round-Phil Mickelson (66) and Olin Browne (65) moved into a tie for first at 14-under 202. Singh was two back.

CUT: 72 pros made the cut at 2-under-par 214 from a field of 180.

Twenty-five amateurs played Sunday. The pro-am cut was 20-under 196.

WEATHER: Dry all week. It was sunny and 59 degrees on Thursday and it was mostly clear and in the low 60s on Friday. It climbed to 68 on Saturday and 81 on Sunday in protected areas, with light winds.

For Matt Gogel, it was a matter of unfinished business.

Only two years earlier, then-rookie Gogel thought his chances of winning the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am were well in hand. Although he entered the final round tied with Mark Brooks at 12-under-par 204, he was playing a course he loved with supreme confidence.

And Tiger Woods, always a threat, was five shots behind. In fact, after 11 holes, Gogel led Woods by seven. But, alas, as is his way, Tiger rallied to win by two strokes over a fading Gogel.

No wonder Gogel attacked the 2002 tournament with a passion. This time it was Gogel roaring from behind to win his first career PGA Tour victory in his 62nd start on the pro circuit.

It didn't come easy. Gogel, a 30-year-old Kansan, was tied with Lee Janzen at 11-under 204-four shots behind leader Pat Perez-coming to the Sunday finale.

Gogel picked up two strokes on Perez on the front nine. But, after birdieing the 13th hole, Perez still had a one-shot lead. Unfortunately, it unraveled for him at the par-5 14th. Opting to hit a 3-wood for his second, Perez pumped the ball out of bounds and slammed his club down in disgust.

"With that pin, that green, I wanted to get as close as I could," he said later.

With the double bogey 7, Perez trailed Gogel by two. But there still was drama to be staged.

Perez, who starred on the 1996 Arizona State national championship team, birdied 15 and 17. Gogel-playing one hole ahead-had bogeyed the par-3 17th. So as Perez stood on the 18th tee, he led by one and maybe needed only a par to clinch the victory. Instead of playing it safe with a 3-wood, the ever-aggressive Perez hit driver and the ball sailed into a hedge, which was ruled out of bounds.

As it turned out, Gogel birdied 18 for a 69 and 274 total and Perez's triple-bogey 8 for a 76-277 made him a loser by three strokes.

Perez was confident a par at 18 would win. "But all that changed in about 30 seconds," he said. "I found my ball out of bounds, Gogel made (the birdie putt) and the crowd went crazy. It was a long walk back to the tee." Gogel said he felt for Perez.

"I've been there before myself," he said. "As for the 18th, I think Pat will learn from that. Was the driver the right play? He will ask himself that a thousand times."

Woods was never a threat, finishing tied for 12th. Phil Mickelson and defending champion Davis Love III missed the cut.

For the second year in a row, nary a drop of water fell on the event. Except for one morning frost delay, good weather prevailed. The lift, clean and place rule was in effect at Spyglass Hill and Poppy Hills, but competitors played the ball down four days at Pebble Beach.

Brian Claar teamed with amateur Randall Mays, a communications executive, to capture the pro-am division. Their 255 score was 33 under par. Singer-songwriter Glenn Frey won the Jack Lemmon Award, given to the amateur who helped his pro the most. Frey aided Craig Stadler 31 shots over 72 holes. Frey and Stadler finished only one stroke behind Claar and Mays.

LEADERS: First round-Brent Schwarzrock shot 8-under 64 at Pebble Beach to grab a two-stroke lead over Gogel and Perez. Second round-Perez tacked on a 65 to go to 13-under 131 and lead Lee Janzen by four. Third round-Perez edged to 15 under at 201 with a 70. Janzen and Gogel were four back.

CUT: 72 players at even-par 216 from a field of 180. Twenty-five amateurs played Sunday. The pro-am cut was 198, 18 under par.

WEATHER: Forty-five minute frost delay on Thursday to start the day. It was sunny with temperatures around 55 on Thursday and 60s on the weekend.

FEBRUARY 6-9

It wasn't the first time a freakish incident with a golf ball led the way to a victory in the Crosby/AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, but Davis Love III will take it.

It was in 1984 that Hale Irwin, one shot behind the leader on Sunday, hooked his drive at No. 18 into the ocean. Or so he thought. But the ball hit a rock and caromed back into play and Irwin went on to win in a playoff with Jim Nelford.

This time it was Love, clinging to a one-stroke lead in the final round after 11 holes at Pebble Beach. At No. 12 he laced a 5-iron on the par-3 hole, only to see it bounce off a Santa Rosa press photographer's shoe. The ball could have kicked into the back rough and maybe led to a bogey or worse. But instead it ricocheted to four feet from the hole and Love calmly made birdie.

Love won by one stroke, so the benefit of that lucky shot was obvious.

Love, who hadn't won on the PGA Tour since his 2001 triumph at Pebble Beach (a span of 44 tournaments), still had work to do after No. 12. He bogeyed the 16th to fall into a tie with Tom Lehman, who had birdied 17 while playing one hole ahead. Love scrambled for par at 17, sinking a 7-foot putt when the ball paused at the lip and then dropped. "It fell over drunk into the hole," said Love later.

Bursting with confidence that Love attributed to a new found positive attitude, Love smashed a drive and a 4-iron to the 18th green and cruised in with a two-putt birdie. His four-under-par 68 for a 14-under 274 was just good enough to nip the luckless Lehman (67-275).

Lehman, who fired a 5-under 31 on the back nine, had a golden chance to birdie the 18th, but missed a five-footer.

"This tournament is about friendships and having fun and having a good attitude," Love said. If a player worries "because it's going to be wet, it's going to be hard, it's going to be windy and cold, you've got to play with amateurs, it's going to take six hours, you have already lost."

Love had played sloppily early, but he put on a rally that was keyed by birdies on the treacherous eighth, ninth and 10th holes. He parred 11 and then came the fateful 12th.

"That was a real break at 12," he said. "It seems like the better your attitude, the better bounces you get."

"Unbelievable," said Lehman when told of Love's break at 12. The weather was sunny all week and for the first time since 1992 no lift-clean-and-place rule was in effect.

In the pro-am division, the teams of Phil Tataurangi-Craig Heatley and Brad Faxon-Thomas Ryan tied for first place at 257-31 under par. As is the practice, they shared the top prize rather than undergo a playoff. Frank Herringer of San Francisco won the Jack Lemmon Award, given the amateur who helps his pro the most over 72 holes. Herringer, a 10-handicapper, aided pro Brett Quigley 26 strokes.

LEADERS: First Round—Kevin Sutherland shot a 6-under 66 (PB) to lead Mike Weir (SH) and Robert Gamez (PH) by a stroke. Second round—Jim Furyk posted a 66 (PH) to move to 7-under 137. Sutherland, Lehman, Tim Herron, Paul Stankowski and Rod Pamplung were one back. Third round—Love, at 10-under 206, fired a 67 (SH) to hold a two-shot lead over Lehman, Pamplung and Weir.

CUT: 74 players at 3-over-par 219 from a field of 180 pros.

WEATHER: A dry, pleasant four days. Morning lows in 40s, with highs in mid-60s.

Vijay Singh's habit of knocking on the door until the house falls down showed up again in the 2004 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

When the 40-year-old Fijian arrived on the Monterey Peninsula, he already had finished in the top 15 five times in this event, including twice as runnerup. The tournament had been his personal cash cow, with $1,031,675 in earnings. He knew the golf courses, he knew his game and his confidence was soaring.

No wonder he fired four rounds in the 60s — only player to do so — to walk off with a three-stroke victory. His 16-under-par 272 earned him another $954,000. Jeff Maggert wound up second at 275 and Phil Mickelson third at 276.

Singh, who recorded 25 birdies over his 72 holes, became only the third foreign-born player to win the Crosby/AT&T. He was preceded by Bruce Crampton (1965) and Brett Ogle (1993). More importantly, the victory launched an amazing season in which he won nine times, banked almost $11 million on tour and claimed the No. 1 ranking in the world from Tiger Woods.

After 54 holes, it appeared the best player with a chance at beating Singh was San Jose State product Arron Oberholser. Paired in the final group Sunday, they were tied for the lead at 13-under 203. But Oberholser, ranked 188th in the world, found out quickly derailing the Singh Express was no easy task.

Singh hooked his opening tee shot at Pebble Beach into deep rough and then saw his approach hop off a knob over the bunker to stop a few feet from the cup for an easy birdie. On No. 2 his approach missed the green by 60 yards, but he pitched to 10 feet and sank that for another birdie. After missing the fairway at No. 3, he sent an iron shot to the green's fringe and dropped a 10-footer for the third birdie.

Oberholser, who routinely parred the first three holes, was in awe. "The man snap-hooked his first three drives," said Oberholser, who shot 76 to finish fourth. "I stripe my first three and make pars while he makes birdies. I mean, okay, that's a wake-up call. But it's hard to compete with that."

Any chance of an Oberholser rally disappeared at the par-4 eighth. His 201-yard 3-iron faded into the hazard below the green. He waited 20 minutes for a ruling on whether he could take an unplayable lie. The decision went against him. His double-bogey six left him six shots back of Singh, who had laced a brilliant 4-iron to five feet and made birdie.

"After that I just cruised along," said Singh, who used his long broom-handled putter throughout.

Maggert tried to make a late run en route to his 69. But his chances evaporated when he four-putted No. 16 for a double bogey.

For the third straight year, the 72 holes were rain-free. But damp conditions led Tour officials to allow players at Poppy Hills and Spyglass Hill to clean their ball on the fairway. They played the ball down at Pebble Beach.

In the pro-am division, amateur Robert Halmi Jr. struck it rich. He not only teamed with pro Jerry Kelly to win the pro-am, but also the third annual Jack Lemmon Award. That went to the amateur who helps his pro the most over 72 holes.

The Halmi-Kelly duo carded a 254-34 strokes under par. Singh and amateur Ted Forstmann finished two shots back. Halmi, an 11-handicapper from New York, helped Kelly 32 strokes in the Jack Lemmon competition. He nipped David Shaffer, who helped pro Dennis Paulson 29 strokes.

LEADERS: First Round—Matt Kuchar (PH) and J.J. Henry (PB) tied for the lead with 65s. Second round—Luke Donald moved into the one-shot lead with a 7-under 65 (PB) for a 134 total. Tom Pernice Jr. (SH) was second at 68-135. Third round—Singh fired a 68 for a 203 (PB) to share the lead with Oberholser, who logged a bogey-free round 67 (SH). Donald, Maggert and Phillip Price were three strokes back (206).

CUT: Sixty-eight pros made the cut at 1-under-par (215). The pro-am cut was 196, with 25 teams advancing to Sunday play.

WEATHER: Cool and dry, with highs in the 60s.

2005

FEBRUARY 7-13

Phil Mickelson started his week on the Peninsula with an admirable acceptance speech at his induction into the California Golf Hall of Fame and finished it by having the last word—on and off the course—as champion of the 2005 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. "It's been a fun week," Mickelson said.

It also was a record week for the San Diego Southpaw, whose 19-under-par 269 was four shots better than fellow lefty Mike Weir, the runner-up from Canada.

Mickelson became the first wire-to-wire winner since the tournament was lengthened from 54 holes to 72 holes in 1958 (it was accomplished four times from 1947-57).

Mickelson matched the tournament record with a 10-under-par 62 in his opening round at Spyglass Hill Golf Course (Tom Kite shot 62 at the Pebble Beach Golf Links in 1983, as did David Duval in 1997, while Matt Gogel shot 62 at Poppy Hills Golf Course in 2001).

Mickelson's 62 set the Spyglass Hill course record (two shots better than the previous record shared by Dan Forsman and David Berganio).

Mickelson set the tournament 36-hole record at 129, with his second-round 67 at Poppy Hills Golf Course (two shots better than the previous record of 131, set by Pat Perez in 2002).

Mickelson set the tournament 54-hole record at 196, with his third-round 67 at Pebble Beach (two shots better than the previous record of 198, set by David Duval in 1997).

"I really don't think about records," Mickelson said. "I just really wanted to win this tournament."

He also tied his own tournament record as the only left-handed winner, but in 1998 Mickelson had to wait six months and 20 days to complete a tournament that was washed out by storms. Mickelson returned in August of that year to play the third round - making the event official - shooting 67 for a 202 that was one shot better than Tom Pernice Jr.

"I think I like the four consecutive days of play better," Mickelson said. "Both wins feel terrific. It was fun to come back in '98 and win. It's even better to do it here in consecutive rounds."

Although a final-round 73, 1-over-par at Pebble Beach, left him one shot off the tournament record of 268 set by Mark O'Meara in 1997, it nonetheless was a solid finish, given that Weir's 67 was the only sub-70 round posted in a light rain, with some gusty wind. Besides, Mickelson was just elated that the victory came on the heels of a win the previous week in FBR Open in Phoenix—an early-season streak that ignited a 2005 season that saw Mickelson win four times, including his second career major at the PGA Championship. The AT&T Pro-Am check for $954,000 also kept him on a path toward $5.7 million in PGA Tour earnings in 2005.

Mickelson, whose relationship with golf on the Peninsula dates back to his first trips north as a teenager for the California State Amateur, and includes the NCAA Championships in 1991 at Poppy Hills, has become one of the premier competitors in the AT&T Pro-Am, with the third-best scoring record in the past 10 years, at 70.59 (behind Vijay Singh at 70.03 and Davis Love III at 70.38)—not an easy task give the distractions of the high-profile celebrity event and the sometimes lengthy rounds.

"The first couple of times you come here, you don't appreciate the individuality of this tournament and how different and unique it is," Mickelson said. "Sometimes you don't appreciate all that the celebrities bring to the table, how they bring people out, get them excited to be out in the event. Over time, you see what an asset it really is."

Mickelson held a seven-shot lead through 54 holes, making Sunday's round little more than a formality. On a day when the wind turned around, making the opening holes more difficult than the dose holes, Weir was the only player in the top 10 who was able to break 70, and Mickelson's lead never slipped below four shots. Greg Owen, of England, started Sunday second, but a 72 left him alone in third, with Paul Goydos and Tim Clark each shooting 71 to hold onto a share of fourth, right where they started Sunday.

In the pro-am team competition, there would be no "Cinderella story" at least not for gallery favorite Bill Murray, the actor of "Caddyshade fame. Murray and longtime pro partner Scott Simpson were in the running for the title, but their closing 67 gave them a 258 total, good for fourth, only the second time they have cracked the top 10 since teaming up in 1993.

The victory went to the consistently hot team of Barry McCollam and pro partner Joel Kribel, who shot 8-under-par 64 for 253 and a four-shot win. McCollam, a 5-handicap from New Zealand who owns Embar Holdings Ltd. (part of a multi-corporation conglomerate), and Kribel shot three straight 63s to go into the final round two shots up on the eventual second-place team of Bob Halloran, Director of Sports for Mirage Sports, and pro Richard S. Johnson.

Halloran and Johnson finished with a 66 for 257, tied with Doug Kintzinger, the CEO of Jeld-Wen, and pro Jay Delsing, who closed with a 68.

McCollam earned the Jack Lemmon Award, which goes to the player who helps his team the most—in this case 27 strokes.

LEADERS: First Round-62 Phil Mickelson (SH), 65 Davis Love III (PH), Kevin Sutherland (PH), Charles Howell III (PB), Daniel Chopra (PB), Hunter Mahan (PB). Second Round-129 Mickelson (67 PH), 133 Mike Weir (67 PB), 135 Paul Goydos (68 PB), Andrew Magee (68 SH), Sutherland (70 PB). Third Round-196 Mickelson (67 PB), 203 Greg Owen (67 PH), 205 Goydos (70 SH), Tim Clark (67 SH), Magee (70 PH), Sutherland (70 SH), Jose Maria Olazabal (68 PH).

CUT: 64 pros made the cut at 4-under-par (212). The pro-am team cut was 196, with 25 teams advancing to the fourth round. There were 10 teams at 196 that were eliminated through the tiebreaker.

WEATHER: Cool and in the 60s all week. Blue skies and sunshine Thursday and Saturday, with light breezes. Light rain on Friday and Sunday, with some stiff gusts of wind Sunday.

Two years after stumbling, Arron Oberholser walked tall and true as he closed the deal on his first PGA Tour victory to the delight of his family and friends from San Jose.

"Growing up, I always watched guys win the golf tournament and just the walk up 18 at Pebble Beach is just unlike anything else," said Oberholser, a former San Jose State standout who played numerous amateur events on the Monterey Peninsula. "Even when you were playing here by yourself or with a foursome, it's still an incredible walk. But to walk up knowing that you are the champion ... I wish everybody could feel that way. It's incredible."

Oberholser, who values the history and tradition of the A&T Pro-Am so much that he calls it his personal "fifth major," shot a final-round 72, even par, on the Pebble Beach Golf Links for a 271, 17-under-par. It was enough for tournament record-tying five-shot cushion over runner-up Rory Sabbatini, whose 70 gave him a 276. Mike Weir, who came into Sunday tied with Oberholser at 199, crashed early—with a double-bogey at the second hole and bogey on the third—and shot 78 to tie for third at 277 with Jonathan Byrd.

The victory, which Oberholser locked up with a magical birdie out of the trees on the par-4 15th, was a distinctly different sequel to his final round in 2004, when he went into the final round tied for the lead with Vijay Singh. Then ranked 188th in the world, Oberholser tweaked his back during warm-ups and then emotionally cracked under the pressure of facing one of the top players in the game, shooting 76 to finish fourth.

This time, with the best putting stroke in the tournament -- he was No. 1 in both putts per round (25.75) and putting average (1.522) -- Oberholser sank birdies on the par-5 second and par-4 third holes for a five-shot lead over Weir. Not bad for someone who couldn't read the Pebble Beach greens as a kid, the first time he played in the Northern California junior championships.

Despite some problems Sunday, Oberholser seemed destined to redeem himself from the 2004 finish when his errant drive on the 15th hit the cart path and then a small cypress tree—but bounced back into an opening. He had room to knock a wedge to within 8 feet and nailed the putt.

"I felt that as soon as that one went in I was like all right, let's go make some golf swings," Oberholser said. "I was struggling. But I was able to piece it together, hit some good shots when I needed to, and get it done."

Three closing pars fell perfectly in line with Oberholser's triumphant march to the finish.

"I think that the maturity and the sense of peace are starting to come around," Oberholser said of handling the pressure. "I was determined to stay calm, to stay at peace with myself no matter what happened. And I was determined to have a good time and smile as much as I can."

There was a lot of smiling and good times all week, as record crowds enjoyed a sixth straight year with no rain problems. Sunshine pushed temperatures into the high 70s as more than 155,000 fans overall attended the four rounds of competition.

Celebrity amateur George Lopez, who has a home at Pebble Beach, had fun, too. The comic actor jumped into the gallery at the 15th tee and "crowd surfed," creating the first mosh pit in tournament history. "I wish I could have caught a bigger wave," Lopez quipped.

The biggest wave of enthusiasm followed Oberholser, who became only the fifth player to earn his first PGA Tour victory at Pebble Beach, joining John Cook (1981), Steve Jones (1988), Brett Ogle (1993) and Matt Gogel (2002). It was a family celebration Sunday, as Oberholser's gallery included his mother, brother, closest friends and their wives, his swing coach, "And all my high school buddies came out, which was really cool," he noted.

They were there to see what they all had been waiting for, including Oberholser himself: his name on a Tour champion's trophy.

"It was going to happen," Oberholser said. "The fact that my first one happened this week, at this tournament, is extremely special. I'm absolutely thrilled that it happened here."

Oberholser also was the fifth pro to sweep both the individual and team titles, as he and amateur partner Michael McCallister, the president and CEO of Humana Inc., tied for first in the pro-am, at 255, 33-under-par. They shared the championship with pro Hunter Mahan and Alan Heuer, the COO of Mastercard International, who shot 66 in the final round, while Oberholser and McCallister shot 68.

Oberholser said he cost his team the title outright when he accidentally picked up McCallister's mark on the fifth green, when it was in Oberholser's line. McCallister had a putt for par, with Oberholser made bogey.

Heuer wound up in another tie—for the Jack Lemmon Award, which goes to the player who helps his team the most. Heuer, Tom Ryan (paired with Brad Faxon) and Richard Stricklen (Shane Bertsch) all helped their pro 26 strokes. It was the first three-way tie for the award in tournament history.

LEADERS: First Round-62 Luke Donald (SH), 63 Mike Weir (PB), 65 Arron Oberholser (PH), Michael Allen (SH), Nick Watney (PB). Second Round-130 Weir (67 PH), 133 Oberholser (68 SH), 134 Jonathan Byrd (65 PB), Donald (72 PB), Fredrik Jacobson (67 PB). Third Round-199 Oberholser (66 PB), Weir (69 SH), 205 Donald (71 PH), 206 Watney (70 SH), Rory Sabbatini (68 SH), Brian Davis (68 SH), Harrison Frazar (67 PH).

CUT: 67 pros made the cut at 3-under-par (213). The pro-am team cut was 196, with 25 teams advancing to the fourth round. There was one team at 196 that was eliminated through the tiebreaker.

WEATHER: Warm and dry all week, with a high of 77 Thursday. Blue skies and sunshine through Thursday, with patchy fog and temperatures in the 50s on Friday. A mixture of sun, fog and light breezes on Saturday and Sunday, with temperatures in the 60s both days.

A little rain didn't bother Phil Mickelson, who repeated his wire-towire victory performance of 2005 and matched two other tournament records along the way.

Mickelson's 20-under-par 268 total tied Mark O'Meara (1997) for lowest winning score for 72 holes, while his five-shot cushion ahead of runner-up Kevin Sutherland joined five others for the biggest winning margin. Mickelson also joined Jack Nicklaus and Johnny Miller as three-time champions, trailing only O'Meara, the all-time leader with five.

Rain and records were not the only things that fell during the week. Thursday at Spyglass Hill, while Bill Murray's foursome was on the 17th green, a Monterey Pine estimated at 90 feet came crashing down from the nearby hillside, falling about two feet from a spectator. No one was injured. Play was stopped momentarily as crews cleaned debris from the back bunker.

By Sunday, the sun was shining and there was no need to worry about rain delays.

"We had a little bit of breeze, but it wasn't a difficult day," said Mickelson, who reached the 30-win milestone for his PGA TOUR career - also winning the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am in 1998 and 2005. "It's not a bad thing if the weather comes in. What was great was we didn't have any delays during the week." He knows that all too well, since his 1998 victory at Pebble Beach was rain-delayed in February - and not completed until August.

Mickelson did not waste any time going to the front of the pack, opening with a 7-under-par 65 at Poppy Hills. He kept rolling to 12-under through 36 holes after his 67 at Pebble Beach, and then finished his three-course rotation with a 2-under-par 70 at Spyglass Hill, where earlier in the week he worked on his putting with short-game coach Dave Pelz.

"Certainly you are not going to make every putt out here," Mickelson said, "but what I did do was start them on line with the right speed. And I was able to make my share."

Indeed, Mickelson had the best short game in the tournament, ranked No. 1 in the combined Putts/Greens In Regulation category and did not have a three-putt all week. But he also drove the ball well, missing only six of 42 fairways the final three rounds, and capitalized on the par 5s, playing them 10-under par (17 total holes).

Going into the final round tied with Sutherland at 14-under, Mickelson dropped out of the lead only momentarily - when he lost a ball at the par-3 fifth hole and took a double-bogey (his 6 iron from 202 yards flew the green). However, birdies at Nos. 6, 8, 10 and 11 pushed him well ahead of the pack, which did not keep pace with Mickelson, who breezed through the back side with a 32, capped with birdies on the 17th and 18th holes for a 66, the low score of the day.

"This means a lot to me because it's a place where I have family memories," said Mickelson, whose grandfather once caddied at Pebble Beach. "I love coming back to this place."

Sutherland's closing 71 was good for second place, one shot ahead of PGA TOUR rookie John Ma'linger, who also shot 71 Sunday.

Mickelson also became the sixth player to win both the pro and team events in the same year, teaming with amateur partner Harry You, to win the pro-am. Their total of 249, 39-under-par, was four shots ahead of the father-son team of Tom Watson and Michael Watson, who finished at 253, 35-under.

On Sunday, You, an 18-handicap, made a timely up-and-down save from under a tree at the par-3 fifth hole, where Mickelson took his double-bogey.

Michael Watson, 24, won the Jack Lemmon Award, given to the amateur who helps his pro the most strokes. Watson, a 6-handicapper, helped his dad by 28 shots in the team competition. He is the third generation of the Watson family crowned a winner at the tournament: His grandfather, Ray Watson, won the team pro-am in 1941 with pro Leonard Dodson, while his father won the pro titles in 1977 and 1978.

All four rounds of the tournament were played under preferred lie rules, allowing players to lift, clean and place the ball within one club length on closely mown areas through the green.

This year's Pro-Am was dedicated to the memory of John Zoller, vice chairman of the Monterey Peninsula Foundation, who passed away the week before the tournament.

LEADERS: First Round — 65 John Mallinger (PB), Nick Watney (PH), Phil Mickelson (PH), 67 Arjun Atwal (PB), Jason Schultz (SH), Jim Furyk (SH). Second Round — 132 Furyk (65 PH), Mickelson (67 PB), 135 Mallinger (70 SH), Kevin Sutherland (63 SH). Third Round — 202 Mickelson (70 SH), Sutherland (67 PH), 203 Ma'linger (68 PH), 207 Corey Pavin (67 PB), Davis Love III (70 SH).

CUT: 60 pros made the cut at 1-under-par 215. The pro-am team cut was 199, 17-under-par with 25 teams advancing to the fourth round (four teams at 17-under were eliminated through the tiebreaker).

WEATHER: Cool and breezy all week, with a high temperature of 60 degrees. Light drizzle Wednesday, followed by occasional showers Thursday through Saturday morning, with heavy rain and strong gusts Saturday afternoon. Sunday had brief early morning showers, followed by sunshine with scattered clouds and lighter breezes.

Since he had not won in his previous 198 PGA TOUR starts, Steve Lowery did not come to the Monterey Peninsula with the same type of expectations as, say, Vijay Singh, who won the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am in 2004 and had six top-10 finishes in his previous 10 visits.

Yet it was Lowery, without so much as a top-20 at Pebble Beach, who was holding the Waterford Crystal on the 18th green, where he sank a seven-foot birdie putt to beat Singh on the first playoff hole. It was the 47-year-old Lowery's third PGA TOUR victory, but first since September 2000.

"This is absolutely my most meaningful win," said Lowery, who closed with a 4-under-par 68 for a 278 total, matching Singh, a third-round co-leader who closed with a 71. "After seven years, and winning on this course against Vijay, it is the most special."

Off the tournament radar for most of the first three rounds, as someone different led each day, Lowery lit up the screen late Saturday and early Sunday to surge to the top of the leaderboard. After a pair of double-bogeys on the par-5 10th and 12th holes at Poppy Hills in the third round, Lowery then made 10 birdies in his next 15 holes. The hot streak not only salvaged a solid 2-under-par 70 at Poppy Hills, it caught everyone's attention with a 5-under-par 31 on the front nine at Pebble Beach.

The defining shot of Lowery's rally was a 217-yard 4-iron from the left fairway bunker on the par-4 ninth; while it more often leads to a bogey, Lowery stuck it tight enough for a birdie. "I just hit it as good as I can hit it," Lowery said.

Singh needed a birdie on the final hole of regulation to force the playoff, but then was not as successful out of the right fairway bunker on the extra hole. Singh hit an 8-iron only 86 yards up the fairway, and then stuck his third in the bunker fronting the green. He managed to save par, but it was not enough.

"I let this one slip away" said Singh, who was 12-under-par when he lost his grip on the lead with successive bogeys on the 14th through 16th holes, leading to a 39 on the finishing nine. "I was in control, but those (three bogeys) took a little air out of me."

Still, through the 16th, Singh remained in a four-way tie for first place with Lowery, as well as Corey Pavin and John Mallinger, who finished at 9-under. And after Lowery birdied the 17th, Singh answered with a birdie on the 18th.

Lowery was not flustered about having to go extra holes, since his previous two wins also came in playoffs. "I knew I could not have given it any more for 18 holes," he said. "I just felt like I didn't have anything to lose. I played solid all day, so I am proud of the way I won it."

As is often the case, the tournament provided more than golf shots to keep the gallery interested throughout the week. LPGA Tour glamour girl Natalie Gulbis caddied for amateur Ted Forstmann in the first round, the same day that tennis legend Chris Evert flew in from Florida to watch fiancé Greg Norman play with his son Gregory.

Pro surfer Kelly Slater became the first player in tournament history to make the cut and then ride the waves along the 18th fairway following the third round.

Comic-in-residence George Lopez kept busy each day. He wore a visor-wig combination Thursday to mimic pro partner Daniel Chopra's spiked, bleached-blond hair (Chopra declared he would adopt the nickname "Chopez" the rest of the week.) On Friday, Lopez donned a kilt, but wisely changed back to golf slacks Saturday, when he went "body-surfing" into the zany Club 15 gallery.

Defending champion Phil Mickelson was also entertaining, for the wrong reason: the 11 he carded Saturday on the par-5 14th hole at Pebble Beach.

Mickelson cut the corner and from a decent lie in the rough, hit two shots with his hybrid out of bounds. He used his 5-iron to get into the fairway on his sixth shot, but wasn't done. Mickelson spun his first approach off the sloping green, chipped his eighth shot halfway up the hill, chipped again to 15 feet and two-putted.

Sunday's final round started with 17 players at four shots or closer to co-leaders Dudley Hart and Singh, with Lowery among six players at 210, four shots behind.

Although the wind kicked up late Sunday, Pebble Beach still scored the lowest of the three tournament courses. For the week, Spyglass Hill averaged 73.206, while Poppy Hills averaged 72.828 and Pebble Beach 72.563.

In the pro-am team competition, pro Frederick Jacobson and amateur Bill Walters shot 250, 38 under par, to win by a tournament-record 10 strokes. (The old record was nine strokes, in 1957 and 1985.)

Walters, an 11-handicap from Las Vegas, also earned the 2008 Jack Lemmon Award, presented to the amateur who helps his pro the most strokes. Owner of Walters Golf, and a member at Del Mar Country Club (Rancho Santa Fe), the 62-year-old Walters contributed 34 shots to his team's four-round total.

Several celebrities made the cut for Sunday's final round: actors Thomas Gibson and Kevin Costner, singer Michael Bolton and Slater.

LEADERS: First Round -66 Kent Jones (PB), John Mallinger, 67 (PH), Roland Thatcher (SH), Brad Adamonis (SH). Second Round - 137 Tim Herron (69 PH), 138 Robert Floyd (70 PH), Michael Allen (70 SH), J.B. Holmes (70 PB), Nicholas Thompson (69 PB). Third Round - 207 Dudley Hart (68 SH), Vijay Singh (67 SH), 209 Dustin Johnson (68 PB), Michael Allen (71 PB).

CUT: 60 pros made the cut at 1-under-par (215). The pro-am team cut was 199, with 25 teams advancing to the fourth round. There were two teams at 199 that were eliminated through the tiebreaker.

WEATHER: Thursday, sunny, in the high 50s, light wind. Friday, sunny, in the low 60s, light wind. Saturday, sunny, with a high of 71, light wind. Sunday, sunny, low 70s, light to moderate wind.

The harsh storm that was expected all week kindly took the daylight hours off, allowing the first three rounds to be completed. But then rain and high winds pounded the Monterey Peninsula, forcing the final round to be rescheduled for Monday. That gave Dustin Johnson one long day to wait around and two nights to sleep on his 54-hole lead, while tournament officials and grounds crews wished for one more playable day.

But Johnson, a 24-year-old from South Carolina, who had only one PGA TOUR victory under his belt when he came to Pebble Beach, never did have his nerves tested under final-round pressure on the famous links. More rain pelted the area Sunday night and Monday morning, forcing cancellation of the fourth round before anyone got a chance to tee it up.

So, the 67 that Johnson posted on Saturday at Poppy Hills, which included four birdies on the back nine, not only gave him a four-stroke lead, but resulted in a 201 total that stood up for a somewhat anticlimactic victory.

It was the first cancellation of a round since 2000 (fourth round postponed to Monday). Johnson became the first 54-hole winner since Payne Stewart in 1999, marking the sixth time the tournament declared a 54-hole winner since it expanded to four rounds in 1958. Nightly showers, heavy at times, softened the golf courses enough to dictate the event be played under "lift, clean and place" rules.

Johnson placed enough shots in the right places to shoot 65 at Pebble Beach on Thursday, 69 at Spyglass Hill on Friday and light up the back side at Poppy Hills with a closing 32 for a 67. Alone in second place, four shots back at 205, was Canada's Mike Weir, with South Africa's Relief Goosen third at 206.

"I was fortunate enough to play really well the first three days, and then unfortunately we did get rained out," said Johnson, who opened the tournament holing out his second shot for an eagle on the first hole at Pebble Beach. "I definitely prepared myself that we were going to play (Monday). I did everything normal, like we were going to play."

But, before he could finish breakfast, Johnson's cell phone rang. It was a TOUR colleague calling to congratulate him on winning. "What are you talking about?" Johnson asked.

He may not have been the last to know, but obviously Johnson wasn't the first to hear that the final round was canceled. Although the high winds and rain subsided overnight, another storm began pouring on the Peninsula about 5 a.m. Monday. Much of the course was unplayable at daybreak, with tee times scheduled to start at 7:30 a.m. Shortly after 7 a.m., TOUR officials made the decision to end the tournament.

"It probably would be a lot of ugly golf out there," Weir said of how things might have gone Monday. "But it would be kind of fun to see who could handle it."

No player would have been to withstand Sunday's 60 mile-per-hour gusts, which knocked down a 40-foot pine tree along the third fairway at Pebble Beach, toppled a television tower and blew the sides off several hospitality tents around the site. "It was too dangerous for the players and spectators to go out there," said TOUR rules chief Mark Russell. "You could hardly stand up, let alone get to the point of playing golf."

Johnson said that the rounds he did get to play were fun, despite the wet weather. "We had a great time," he said of being paired with Joe Rice, an attorney with a 17-handicap from Charleston, S.C. "We were out there laughing all day. It played very slow, so we did a lot of talking. We just had a great time."

Goosen, in his first appearance at the AT&T Pro-Am, was enjoying himself for two days enroute to a two-shot lead. But his 74 on Saturday at Spyglass Hill saw him finish with a 38 on the front side, while Johnson was blistering Poppy Hills' back side for a six-shot swing that launched Johnson into the lead—for good, as it turned out.

Johnson and Rice also won a piece of the pro-am team title, with a 23-under-par total of 193. In the first tie since 2006, they shared the victory with pro Chris Stroud and Ron Christman, an 18 handicap from Kingwood, Texas.

The celebrity field included many new faces, including NFL star Peyton Manning; actors Greg Kinnear and Dennis Haysbert; U.S. soccer great Brandi Chastain; country singer Pat Green, whose first day included a hole-in-one on the 15th hole at Spyglass Hill; and motorcycle racing legend Kenny Roberts Sr., who was the only one of the "rookies" to make the cut. William and Cindi Bone also became the tournament's first husband-wife tandem.

Brian Tyler, president of McKesson Medical Group, who helped pro partner Aron Price with 18 shots, won the annual Jack Lemmon Award, which goes to the amateur who most helped his team.

LEADERS: First Round - 65 Robert Garrigus (SH), Dustin Johnson (PB), 66 Rich Beem (PB), Vaughn Taylor (PB), 67 seven tied. Second Round - 132 Retief Goosen (64 PB), 134 Johnson (69 SH), 136 Garrigus (71 PH), Charlie Hoffman (70 PH), Mike Weir (69 PB), Mark Calcavecchia (69 PB). Third Round - 201 Johnson (67 PH), 205 Weir (69 SH), 206 Goosen (74 SH), 207 Bob Estes (67 SH), Calcavecchia (71 SH).

CUT: 68 pros made the cut at 214, 2-under-par. The pro-am team cut was 199, with the limit of 25 teams advancing. Five teams at 199 were eliminated through the tiebreaker.

WEATHER: Thursday - Light showers in the morning, patchy clouds in the afternoon; temperature in the mid-50s, light wind. Friday - Scattered showers, heavy at times, giving way to patchy clouds and sunshine in the afternoon, temperature in the mid-50s, light wind. Saturday - Light showers in the morning gave way to sunny skies and temperatures in the 40s, with moderate wind. Sunday - Heavy rain and wind with gusts up to 60 mph. Monday - Rain in the morning.

Dustin Johnson insisted all week that his rain-shortened victory in the previous year's AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am did not leave him with anything to prove. But the tall, 25-year-old with the towering tee shots provided enough proof to go around, anyway.

Opening with an 8-under-par 64 to lead from the start, Johnson finished with a birdie on the final hole at Pebble Beach Golf Links to become only the sixth player in tournament history to win back-to-back titles (the first in 20 years, since Mark O'Meara in 1989-1990).

"It's hard to say one win is better than the other," said Johnson, who came into the Sunday round tied with veteran Paul Goydos, both at 196, 18 under par, which equaled the tournament record for 54 holes. "They both mean the same to me."

One thing that was not the same was the course rotation, with the Shore Course at Monterey Peninsula Country Club joining Spyglass Hill and Pebble Beach for the first time since 1977. MPCC was an immediate hit with the tour pros, whose reaction may have been summed up best by Phil Mickelson, who said, "It's one of my favorites now on Tour. The playability of it is terrific. It is a great addition to this tournament."

Another difference from 2009 was the size of field and pace of play. The number of pro-am teams was reduced from 180 to 156, which allowed rounds to be completed more than 30 minutes faster, in some cases, than in previous years - another significant factor.

One thing that remained the same: the wet conditions. For the first three rounds, players were allowed to lift, clean and place the golf ball at all three courses, a result of repeated rainstorms that hung around through Tuesday morning. Sunday, the rules returned to normal at Pebble Beach.

"This course is all weather-dependent," Johnson said of Pebble Beach, where his career start is the best in history - 7th, 1st and 1st in his first three appearances, earning $2.4 million in the process. "Sunday the wind switched and playing the ball down, I had a few mud balls. Sometimes they go straight and sometimes they go off the world."

Goydos' name went off the leaderboard at the par-5 14th hole Sunday, when he posted a quadruple-bogey 9- in the group behind Bryce Molder, who also made a 9 there. "It wasn't like I didn't try on all nine shots," quipped Goydos, whose greenside chipping proved disastrous. "Just everything I did on that hole didn't work out."

Johnson made par on the 14th and, despite closing with a 2-over-par 74, held up under the pressure of the final round when it counted most.

Following a bogey on the par-3 17th hole, he fell into a tied for the lead when J.B. Holmes birdied the 18th in the group ahead. Johnson, who did not have to face any fourth-round challenges 2009, crushed a perfect drive 288 yards down the middle of the 18th fairway, tactically played a 3-iron draw 225 yards into the front greenside bunker, softly flopped his third shot inside four feet and sank the putt for a one-stroke victory.

"Obviously, Sunday there is a little more nerves going on and a little more excitement," Johnson said of his emotions down the stretch. "That always plays into account. I was comfortable ... nervous, but nervous in a good way."

Holmes, with a closing 71, tied for second with veteran David Duval, the sentimental favorite whose 69 included six birdies.

The celebrity field included old friends like actor Bill Murray and quarterback Tom Brady, as well as new faces that included actors Oliver Hudson and Rob Morrow and quarterback Tony Romo.

In the pro-am team competition, Goydos - who earlier in the week received the Jack Lemmon Ambassador of Golf Award from the California Golf Writers & Broadcasters Association - did something Lemmon never could: win the pro-am. Goydos and partner Robert Stuart, a Hertz executive from Cleveland with an 18 handicap, teamed for a 249 total, 37 under par, and a four-shot cushion.

Actor Josh Duhamel, a 12 handicapper, helped his pro, Sergio Garcia, by 30 strokes to win the tournament's Jack Lemmon award, for the amateur who helps the most. The team tied for second, 33 under par.

LEADERS: First Round - (-8) Dustin Johnson 64 at PB, (-7) J.B. Holmes 65 at PB, K.J. Choi 65 at PB, (-6) Charley Hoffman 64 at MPCC. Second Round - (-10) Alex Cejka 67 at SH, Bryce Molder 65 at MPCC, Dustin Johnson 68 at MPCC, Paul Goydos 65 at SH, J.B. Holmes 67 at MPCC, Matt Jones 67 at PB, (-9) David Duval 68 at PB. Third Round - (-18) Dustin Johnson 64 at SH, Paul Goydos 64 at PB, (-14) J.B. Holmes at 68 SH, Bryce Molder 68 at SH, Matt Jones 66 at MPCC.

CUT: 69 pros made the cut at 210, 4-under-par. The pro-am team cut was 194, with the limit of 25 teams advancing. Two teams were eliminated through the tiebreaker.

WEATHER: Thursday - Partly cloudy, temperature reaching the high 50s, mild breezes. Friday - Partly cloudy, temperature reaching the low 60s, mild breezes. Saturday - Mostly sunny, temperatures in the 60s, mild breezes. Sunday - Sunny, temperatures in the mid-50s, with moderate breezes.

The "Cinderella Story" finally came true. Bill Murray, the comic actor and beloved celebrity icon for the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, added his name to the list of champions, as he and pro partner D. A. Points captured the team title.

Murray, who first appeared at the AT&T Pro-Am in 1992, continued to transform the golf courses into his own unique "improv-on-the-greens." But Murray could not have written a better script for Points, who recorded his first career PGA TOUR victory dosing with a 5-under-par 67 at Pebble Beach Golf Links for a total of 271, 15-under-par, to win by two shots.

"It will take me a really long time to truly grasp what I was able to do with Bill," said Points, who like Murray is an Illinois native, and grew up idolizing Murray's numerous movie roles and Saturday Night Live characters. "To win at Pebble Beach ... and with Bill Murray? My gosh, I don't think I could ever have dreamed it up that well."

Starting the final round two shots behind leader Steve Marino, Points popped in and out of the lead throughout the day, as did Marino, Hunter Mahan and Jimmy Walker. Points was within one of Marino when he came to the tricky par-5 14th hole, which the previous year knocked out two top contenders when each posted a 9 there in the final round. But from 110 yards Points holed out his approach for an eagle to take a one-shot lead in both the individual and team races.

Points kept the momentum going when he made a birdie on the 15th for a two-shot lead. And even though he flirted with an OB stake along the left side of the 16th fairway, Points closed with three pars to complete the sweep.

A four-time winner on the Nationwide Tour, Points became the eighth pro in tournament history to win both the individual and team titles in the same year. He also became the sixth pro to record his first career PGA TOUR victory at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am.

Murray said that after Points made the birdie at No. 15, he could not stop laughing at the thought of actually winning at Pebble Beach.

"I could not speak," Murray said. "I realized that this is it. We have won this tournament."

Having teamed with pro Scott Simpson for many years - they finished as high as fourth in 2005 - Murray helped 20 shots over four days, as he and Points finished at 251, 35- under-par.

The celebrity field included several newcomers, including actors Kurt Russell and Anthony Anderson, as well as San Francisco Giants pitcher Matt Cain.

TOMS Shoes founder Blake Mycoskie, a 16 handicapper from Arlington, TX, helped pro Vaughn Taylor by 29 strokes to win the tournament's Jack Lemmon Award, which goes to the amateur who helps his team the most. The team tied for second, 33-under-par.

LEADERS: First Round - Steve Marino -7(65 SH), D.A. Points -7 (63 MP); Alex Cejka -6 (64 MP). Second Round - Marino -13 (131/66 PB), Points -13 (133/70 SH), Keegan Bradley -8 (134/69 SH), 10 players tied at -7. Third Round - Marino -12 (202/71 MP), Bryce Molder -11 (203/ 68 MP), Jimmy Walker -11 (203/63 SH), Points -10 (204/71 PB).

CUT: 73 pros made the cut at 212, 2 under-par. The pro-am team cut was 195, 19 under par, with the limit of 25 teams advancing. Seven teams were eliminated through the tiebreaker.

COURSE AVERAGES: Pebble Beach 72.381, Spyglass Hill 72.426, Monterey Peninsula 69.840.

WEATHER: Sunshine all week, with mild breezes. Thursday and Friday temperature in the mid- to high 60s, with Saturday reaching a high of 70. Sunday included a few scattered clouds, cooling to the low 60s in the afternoon.

The excitement surrounding the return of Tiger Woods ultimately gave way to the excellence of Phil Mickelson, whose spectacular Sunday 64 produced his fourth victory in the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

Mickelson's 269 total, 17 under par, was good for a two-shot victory and further cemented his place in tournament history: He became the second player to win in three decades (1998, 2005, 2007, 2012), joining Johnny Miller (1974, 1987, 1994); he passed three-time winners Jack Nicklaus and Miller, moving within one of Mark O'Meara's record of five.

This was a milestone year off the course, as well, with the Monterey Peninsula Foundation surpassing the $100,000 mark in funds raised for local charity. And Sunday's television audience soared to its highest in 15 years, with viewers tuned in for an eagerly awaited showdown between Mickelson and Woods, who were paired together for the final round.

Ahead of them both, however, was the considerably overshadowed leader, Charlie Wi, who went into the final round three shots ahead of Ken Duke, four ahead of Woods and six up on Mickelson.

If anyone knew it was possible to catch up with an early move, it was Mickelson — since it happened to him in 2001, when Davis Love III shot 63, including 28 on the front nine, to chase down Mickelson and win the tournament. On the other hand, Woods shot 64 to roar past Matt Gogel for victory at Pebble Beach in 2000.

While the stage was set for a dramatic finish, the "Dream Duel" between Mickelson and Woods never materialized.

Mickelson played the first six holes 5 under par, capped with an eagle at No. 6, which gave him the outright lead in the tournament for the first time. Woods, making his first appearance in the tournament since 2002, opened with five pars and birdied No. 6. But he then bogeyed the next three holes for a 38, making the turn five shots behind Mickelson.

The gap only continued to widen, as Woods shot 37 on the back to finish nine shots behind Mickelson, in a distant tie for 15th. Had they actually been playing a match, Mickelson would have beaten Woods 7 and 5. Mickelson's 64 was his best closing round in the tournament, and only one winner had ever done better: Love in 2001.

"It means a lot to me," Mickelson said of winning again at Pebble Beach. "It's a special place for me, an emotional place ... my grandfather having caddied here ... the overall importance of the tournament to the game and how much I love the place. It just feels great to win this tournament."

Midway through Friday's round, however, Mickelson was feeling down. "I was moping," Mickelson said of being even for the day and only 2 under par through 27 holes. "I didn't think I was in position to win at that moment." That's when his wife, Amy, arrived and set the unofficial tournament record for "best pep talk," completely re-energizing her husband's outlook. "Her bubbly, positive attitude got me going," he said.

Mickelson went back out and shot 29 on the front nine of the Monterey Peninsula Country Club Shore Course, one shot off the record set the previous day by Wi. It kept Mickelson within five shots of Wi at the halfway point, and more importantly sent him into the weekend thinking like anything was possible.

Daniel Chopra set the tone for "doing the impossible" by making two holes-in-one Monday in his practice round at Pebble Beach Golf Links, on the famous 7th and 17th holes. Saturday, Nick O'Hern made his second ace in as many years at the tournament, on No. 14 at MPCC, while Boo Weekley aced No. 5 at Spyglass Hill and Joseph Bramlett made a double-eagle 2 on the par-5 11th at Spyglass Hill.

The "impossible dream" came true for comedian-actor Ray Romano, who made the cut for the first time. He was joined Sunday by comedian Tom Dreesen, quarterback Tony Romo, pitcher Matt Cain, and football coaches Bill Belichick and Bob Stoops.

Stoops, a first-time contestant, wound up winning the prestigious Jack Lemmon Award, as the amateur who helps his team the most. A 14-handicap out of Oklahoma Golf & Country Club, helped pro Billy Haas by 31 strokes. The team finished fourth, 31 under par.

There was a shared championship in the pro-am team competition. The team of pro Padraig Harrington and J.P. McManus (14) tied with the team of pro Brian Harman and Gregg Ontiveros (17) at 251,31 under par.

LEADERS: First Round - Charlie Wi -9(61 MP), Danny Lee -9(63 PB), Dustin Johnson -9(63 PB), Ken Duke -8(64 PB), Brian Harman -8(64 PB). Second Round - Charlie Wi -12 (130/69 PB), Dustin Johnson -9(135 (72 SH), Brian Gay -8 (134/65 MP), Vijay Singh -8 (136/68 SH), Danny Lee -8(136/73 SH), Padraig Harrington -8(134/66 PB), Brendon Todd -8 (69 SH). Third Round - Charlie Wi -15 (199/69 SH), Ken Duke -12 (202/65 MP), Tiger Woods -11 (203/67 PB), five tied at -9.

CUT: 68 pros made the cut at 213, 1 under par, to advance to Sunday's final round. The pro-am team cut was 196,18 under par, with the limit of 25 teams advancing. One team - defending champions Bill Murray and D.A. Points - was eliminated through the tiebreaker.

COURSE AVERAGES: Pebble Beach 71.923, Spyglass Hill 72.581, Monterey Peninsula 69.883.

WEATHER: Monday sunshine, temperature in the 60s. Tuesday isolated light showers, temperature in the 50s. Wednesday and Thursday sunshine, temperature with a high of 70. Friday isolated showers, temperature high of 63. Saturday isolated showers, temperature in the 50s. Sunday overcast, temperature in the 50s.

Although his resume for the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am left a lot to be desired, Brandt Snedeker arrived on the Monterey Peninsula hot on the heels of second-place finishes the previous two weeks.

By Sunday evening, his week ended with the one thing that had been escaping him: his first victory of the year.

Closing with a 65 on Pebble Beach Golf Links, Snedeker wound up at 19 under par, a comfortable two shots clear of third-year TOUR pro Chris Kirk. Snedeker's 267 marked the lowest 72-hole total in tournament history although the record in relationship to par (20-under) remained intact. Not bad for someone who had not cracked the top 20 in five prior tournaments, missing the cut twice in his previous three starts.

On top of the victory at Pebble Beach that Snedeker had coveted, he also teamed up with a longtime friend from Tennessee, Toby S. Wilt, to earn a share of the pro-am team title. "It's too perfect," Snedeker said of the sweep, which was completed on a weekend blessed with nothing but sunshine, blue skies and timely red numbers.

Tied for the lead going into the final round, Snedeker handled Pebble Beach Golf Links with textbook precision - scoring early (eagle on No. 2, birdies at the 4th, 6th and 7th) and holding on tight until the end.

"I did a great job of playing the golf course the way you're supposed to play it," Snedeker said. But, he added, "No lead is safe around here."

After a bogey at No. 9 - thanks to his only three-putt of the week - Snedeker got right back on track, making birdies at 10 and 11, followed by a nifty up-and-down for par from behind the 12th green.

Kirk emerged as the lone noticeable threat on the back nine, pulling within two shots with four holes to play. But Snedeker posted solid pars down the stretch, before a 10-foot uphill birdie putt on the 17th dropped in to give him a three-shot cushion as he waited on the 18th tee.

"There is not much better place to be on the planet, than on that tee box," Snedeker said of enjoying the moment. "It felt pretty special."

Although Kirk birdied the 18th to pull within two shots, Snedeker cruised in right behind him with a routine par, two-putting from 30 feet to wrap it up.

"I just had a good feeling that today was going to be my day" said Snedeker, whose 65 tied for low round (with Kevin Stadler).

Of the top 10 leaders going into Sunday, five had not won on the PGA Tour and three others had won only once. Snedeker's four wins gave him far superior experience under fire over everyone but Relief Goosen, a seven-time winner and two-time U.S. Open Champion (who finished with a 69 and was never in contention).

Bay Area product and "hometown favorite" James Hahn, a rookie on the PGA Tour, was tied with Snedeker through 54 holes, at 202. Paired with Snedeker in the final group, Hahn was unable to keep pace, playing the front side in only 1-under. He wound up with a 70 and finished tied for third at 272, 14 under par.

Snedeker and Wilt, a 7 handicap and fellow Vanderbilt alum, shared the pro-am title with the team of Michael Letzig and 18-handicap John Erickson, at 255. It was the second straight tie in the pro-am.

The celebrity amateur field welcomed newcomers Condoleezza Rice, the former Secretary of State, and recently retired tournament director 011ie Nutt, who aced the seventh hole at MPCC in the first round. Others playing for the first time were pitcher Justin Verlander, who made the cut, and retired tennis star Andy Roddick, who did not. San Francisco 49ers Coach Jim Harbaugh, only a few days from a Super Bowl appearance, was among the celebs who made the cut, with pro Jason Day.

Brian Swette, a food company executive who lives in Pebble Beach, won the prestigious Jack Lemmon Award, as the amateur who helps his team the most. An 8-handicap who plays out of Monterey's Tehama Golf Club and Monterey Peninsula Country Club, Swette helped pro Chez Reavie by 28 strokes. The team tied for ninth at 28 under par.

LEADERS: First Round — Hunter Mahan -6(66 PB), Russell Knox -6(64 MP), Matt Every -5(67 PB), Seung-Yul Noh -5(67 PB), Ted Potter Jr. -5 (67 PB), Greg Owen -5 (65 MP), Ryuji Imada -5 (65 MP), Scott Langley -5 (65 MP). Second Round — Potter -8 (134/67 MP), Brandt Snedeker -8 (134/68 SH), Fredrik Jacobson -7(137/66 PB), John Merrick -7 (135 /67 MP), Mahan -7(135/69 MP), Patrick Reed -7(137/69 PB); four tied at -6. Third Round — Snedeker -12 (202/68 PB), James Hahn -12 (202/66 SH), Chris Kirk 11 (203/64 MP), Patrick Reed -10(204/67 MP), Richard H. Lee -9 (205/66 PB); five tied at -8.

CUT: 70 pros made the cut at 213, 1 under par, to advance to Sunday's final round. The pro-am team cut was 195, 18 under par, with the limit of 25 teams advancing (two teams eliminated through the tiebreaker).

COURSE AVERAGES: Pebble Beach 71.412, Spyglass Hill 72.641, Monterey Peninsula 70.244.

WEATHER: Monday through Wednesday early morning fog, then mostly sunny, temperature in the low 60s. Thursday early morning showers, then mostly sunny, temperature in the 50s. Friday early morning rain, then mostly sunny with temperatures in the 40s and low 50s. Saturday and Sunday both sunny throughout with temperatures in the mid- to high 50s.

But Snedeker posted solid pars down the stretch, before a 10-foot uphill birdie putt on the 17th dropped in to give him a three-shot cushion as he waited on the 18th tee. "There is not much better place to be on the planet, than on that tee box," Snedeker said of enjoying the moment. "It felt pretty special."

Although Kirk birdied the 18th to pull within two shots, Snedeker cruised in right behind him with a routine par, two-putting from 30 feet to wrap it up. "I just had a good feeling that today was going to be my day," said Snedeker, whose 65 tied for low round (with Kevin Stadler).

Of the top 10 leaders going into Sunday, five had not won on the PGA Tour and three others had won only once. Snedeker's four wins gave him far superior experience under fire over everyone but Retief Goosen, a seven-time winner and two-time U.S. Open Champion (who finished with a 69 and was never in contention).

Bay Area product and "hometown favorite" James Hahn, a rookie on the PGA Tour, was tied with Snedeker through 54 holes, at 202. Paired with Snedeker in the final group, Hahn was unable to keep pace, playing the front side in only 1-under. He wound up with a 70 and finished tied for third at 272, 14 under par.

Snedeker and Wilt, a 7 handicap and fellow Vanderbilt alum, shared the pro-am title with the team of Michael Letzig and 18-handicap John Erickson, at 255. It was the second straight tie in the pro-am. The celebrity amateur field welcomed newcomers Condoleezza Rice, the former Secretary of State, and recently retired tournament director Ollie Nutt, who aced the seventh hole at MPCC in the first round. Others playing for the first time were pitcher Justin Verlander, who made the cut, and retired tennis star Andy Roddick, who did not. San Francisco 49ers Coach Jim Harbaugh, only a few days from a Super Bowl appearance, was among the celebs who made the cut, with pro Jason Day.

Brian Swette, a food company executive who lives in Pebble Beach, won the prestigious Jack Lemmon Award, as the amateur who helps his team the most. An 8-handicap who plays out of Monterey's Tehama Golf Club and Monterey Peninsula Country Club, Swette helped pro Chez Reavie by 28 strokes. The team tied for ninth at 28 under par.

LEADERS: First Round – Hunter Mahan -6 (66 PB), Russell Knox -6 (64 MP), Matt Every -5 (67 PB), Seung-Yul Noh -5 (67 PB), Ted Potter Jr. -5 (67 PB), Greg Owen -5 (65 MP), Ryuji Imada -5 (65 MP), Scott Langley -5 (65 MP).

Second Round – Potter -8 (134/67 MP), Brandt Snedeker -8 (134/68 SH), Fredrik Jacobson -7 (137/66 PB), John Merrick -7 (135/67 MP), Mahan -7 (135/69 MP), Patrick Reed -7 (137/69 PB); four tied at -6.

Third Round – Snedeker -12 (202/68 PB), James Hahn -12 (202/66 SH), Chris Kirk 11 (203/64 MP), Patrick Reed -10 (204/67 MP), Richard H. Lee -9 (205/66 PB); five tied at -8.

CUT: 70 pros made the cut at 213, 1 under par, to advance to Sunday's final round. The pro-am team cut was 195, 18 under par, with the limit of 25 teams advancing (two teams eliminated through the tiebreaker).

COURSE AVERAGES: Pebble Beach 71.412, Spyglass Hill 72.641, Monterey Peninsula 70.244.

WEATHER: Monday through Wednesday early morning fog, then mostly sunny, temperature in the low 60s. Thursday early morning showers, then mostly sunny, temperature in the 50s. Friday early morning rain, then mostly sunny with temperatures in the 40s and low 50s. Saturday and Sunday both sunny throughout with temperatures in the mid- to high 50s

It was destined that this particular tournament concludes with a great save. Jimmy Walker barely found the left edge of the final hole with a five-foot par putt to win the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro- Am by a stroke, thus saving himself from the embarrassment of coughing up a six-shot lead.

Stumbling in with a 2-over-par 74, for a total of 276, Walker avoided a playoff with two-time tournament champion Dustin Johnson and Jim Renner, who closed with a 66 and 67, respectively, finishing at 277, 10-under-par.

"I made it a little more dramatic than it needed to be," Walker said.

It would have been appropriate if Walker had choked, since the buzz around Pebble Beach all week centered around tournament icon Clint Eastwood performing the Heimlich maneuver on tournament CEO Steve John at the annual Volunteer Party the night before competition began. Eastwood, 83, Chairman of the Monterey Peninsula Foundation, saw that John was choking on a piece of cheese. He lifted up John three times and dislodged the cheese. "Clint saved my life," John said. "I guess he likes having me part of the team."

Being good teammates was a definite theme to the week:

Even though the 49ers traded him to Kansas City, quarterback Alex Smith helped out his former team in Tuesday's charity shootout exhibition match with the baseball Giants. "Shows you the kind of team guy he always is," Niners' captain Harris Barton, the ex-tackle, said of Smith, a favorite with AT&T Pro-Am fans.

Country music star Jake Owen, teamed up with young pro Jordan Spieth, finished his round Friday, flew to San Antonio, Texas, to perform a concert, then flew back in time for his 10:01 tee time Saturday morning.

Points, the 2011 tournament champion, was DQ'd after the second round for using a training device during competition. While some pros might have skipped town, he came back to play Saturday with team partner, former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice. "He didn't have to do that," Rice said. I know what it's like to be on the road a lot and perhaps get to go home early. It really speaks well for him."

Walker's longtime caddie Andy Sanders may have given his boss a better lift than Eastwood gave John, with a pep talk in the 18th fairway. "He reminded me 'This is why you are here.' I am glad he said that. It calmed me down."

The weather calmed down too, after the tournament again illustrated its mystical effect on climate change. The week prior to competition, Gov. Jerry Brown declared a drought emergency in California – which received the least amount of rainfall in its 153-year history – and Monterey County closed several rivers and streams to fishing because of low flows. The next week it rained on all four rounds.

Only 39 minutes into the tournament, Thursday's first round was suspended for 2 hours, 51 minutes when a heavy rainstorm created standing water on the greens. Play resumed at 11:30 a.m. but darkness forced 40 players to finish early Friday morning. The start of the second round was pushed back one hour, but by the end of another rainy day the event was back on its time schedule.

Saturday at 11:11 a.m., with winds gusting to as much as 36 mph, tournament officials suspended play again when Trevor Immelman's ball was blown off line at the fourth hole at Pebble Beach. The delay lasted 2 hours, 19 minutes.

"It's a shame," said Mark Russell, vice president of rules and competitions for the PGA TOUR. "We missed the rain (Saturday) but the wind got us." Preferred lies were allowed all four rounds.

Walker, who finished third in the 2013 AT&T, didn't let the weather get him, at least in terms of his schedule. He was able to complete each round on the same day he started them, which was not the case for 40 players on Thursday and another dozen on Saturday. And when Walker was the last man standing, needing a clutch finish, he didn't need Eastwood to rush down from the TV broadcast booth behind the 18th green and save him from "choking."

Walker settled down, "blocked everything out," he said, and got it done. Just before it started raining again.

The pro-am team competition also went down to the 72nd hole, with Renner and his amateur partner, John Harkey Jr., a 9-handicap who plays out of Dallas, winning by one stroke with a total of 256, 31- under-par. The winners saved their best for last, teaming up for a 61 on Sunday to overtake the field.

The celebrity amateur field welcomed several newcomers; including rocker Kid Rock, an immediate fan favorite, and newly retired tennis tour pro James Blake. Peyton Manning, only a few days from a Super Bowl defeat, was among a quartet of marquee NFL quarterbacks in the field, along with Smith, Tom Brady and Aaron Rodgers.

Blake rallied to tie for the annual Jack Lemmon Award, which goes to the amateur who helps his pro the most. Paired with pro Chris Kirk, Blake made up four shots on the final two holes to help his team 24 shots total for the tournament. Investment professional Peter Castleman helped pro Wes Roach 24 shots as well.

Celebrating its 30th edition with AT&T as title sponsor, the tournament enjoyed remarkable weather and record scoring, led by Brandt Snedeker, who won the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am for the second time in three years. Snedeker finished 22-under par, two shots better than the old record, and his 265 total was a comfortable three shots better than runner-up Nick Watney, whose 19-under tied the record for lowest total by a non-winner.

"It was an emotional win," said Snedeker, who took the lead with a birdie on the par-3 seventh hole Sunday at Pebble Beach Golf Links and never relinquished it. "It was one of those weeks where the stars lined up and everything went right."

Only one day after torrential rain pounded the Monterey Peninsula, the skies cleared Monday to provide the best weather on record for an entire tournament week since 1972; that year it was sunny every day with a high of 75 on Friday and Saturday. More than 40 years later, temperatures reached the mid-70s every day, with 5-10 mph breezes and highs of 75 on Friday and 77 on Saturday. The weather did not cool until the final hour of Sunday's play, when the fog rolled in from Carmel Bay to provide a gray backdrop for the finish of an otherwise brilliant week.

"You couldn't have asked for four better days," Snedeker said. "The weather was perfect all week."

There rarely have been four worse days than in 1986, the year AT&T debuted as title sponsor. Storms made the courses soggy, forced the second round to be postponed and eventually reduced the event to 54 holes. Not so in 2015. Warm weather led to some sizzling scores – including a pair of 62s at Monterey Peninsula Country Club and two 63s at Pebble Beach Golf Links – all just one shot off the course records. And a record low cut was set for both the professionals (7-under-par) and the pro-am teams (22-under par).

Tour rookie Mark Hubbard did not make the cut, but went home with a pretty good consolation prize: a fiancée. Hubbard proposed to his girlfriend on the 18th green at Pebble Beach, immediately after the first round. To the gallery's delight – not to mention Hubbard's – she said yes.

The tone for the week was set Thursday, when both J.B. Holmes and Justin Hicks shot 64, 8 under par, both at Pebble Beach. On Friday, Jason Day posted a 62 at MPCC, with Scott Brown matching that the following day. Through the full field's 54-hole rotation, all three courses – even the traditionally tough Spyglass Hill – played under par (Pebble Beach 70.192, Spyglass Hill 71.199, Monterey Peninsula 68.936). Pebble Beach played about the same on Sunday (70.359) for those making the cut.

Snedeker, who made only one bogey through the first three rounds, started Sunday one shot behind leader Jim Furyk, as did Matt Jones, with Watney two shots back. Furyk and Jones both faded from contention early, neither making a birdie until the back nine. Pat Perez, the heartbreak loser here in 2002, and Day climbed the leaderboard, both shooting 31 on the front, making mild early threats to the lead. But it was Watney who sprinted past Furyk with four birdies on the first four holes, only to give half of it back with bogeys on the fifth and sixth.

Managing to stay out of trouble, Snedeker made three birdies on the front side, including the par-3 seventh, where he went 20-under for the tournament. His birdie on the par-4 11th put him at 21-under, and when Watney started finding bunkers on the 12th, 13th and 14th holes, there would be no catching Snedeker.

Snedeker's birdie on the 15th gave him a four-shot lead at 22-under with three to play, and since he was not making any bogeys, he cruised home from there to become the 11th multiple winner in tournament history.

Feeling comfortable at a place he had won before, Snedeker also was playing with a driver he's had since 2010 ("it finds the fairway") and a putter he picked up before he was on the PGA Tour. Informed that the two clubs had a trade-in value of roughly $32, Snedeker said, "If you see any, I'm willing to buy them for that."

The celebrity amateur field welcomed several newcomers, including baseball all-star Buster Posey, who made the cut, comedy movie-making brothers Bobby and Peter Farrelly, and comic Daniel "Larry The Cable Guy" Whitney.

The pro-am team competition was won by Perez and amateur Michael Lund, co-founder of Pandora Jewelry and an 8-handicap from Denmark. They finished with a total of 245, 42 under par, one stroke off the pro-am record (43-under by Paul Stankowski and Andy Garcia in 1997).

San Francisco Giants pitcher Matt Cain won the annual Jack Lemmon Award, which goes to the amateur who helps his team the most. Paired with pro Matt Bettencourt, Cain helped 27 strokes as the team tied for 12th. (Cain won the honor in a tie-breaker over investment banker Jimmy Dunne III, who also helped pro Patrick Reed 27 strokes.)

LEADERS: First Round – J.B. Holmes -8 (64 PB), Justin Hicks -8 (64 PB), John Daly -7 (65 PB), Jim Furyk -7 (64 MP), Brandt Snedeker -7 (64 MP), Chesson Hadley -7 (64 MP), Dudley Hart -7 (65 PB), JJ Henry -7 (65 PB). Second Round – Matt Jones -12 (131/66 SH), Snedeker -12 (131/67 SH), Hicks -11 (132/68 MP), 10 players tied at -10. Third Round – Furyk -18 (197/63 PB), Jones -17 (198/67 PB), -17 Snedeker (198/67 PB), -16 Nick Watney (199/65 PB), -14 Kevin Chappell (201/66 PB).

CUT: 64 pros made the cut at 208, 7-under-par, to advance to Sunday's final round. The pro-am team cut was 193, 22-under-par, with the limit of 25 teams advancing (one team eliminated through the tiebreaker).

COURSE AVERAGES: Pebble Beach 70.241; Spyglass Hill 71.199; Monterey Peninsula 68.936.

WEATHER: Monday through Sunday sunny and warm, temperature reaching into the mid-70s. Sunday cooler with some late afternoon fog.

While huge galleries lined the sun-drenched fairways going gaga over pop music superstar Justin Timberlake, journeyman tour pro Vaughn Taylor went unnoticed during the first three rounds. The debut of the Jordan Spieth bobble-head doll drew far more attention than Taylor.

Then, on Sunday, after absorbing a pair of bogeys on the front nine at Pebble Beach Golf Links, the almost-40-year-old from Augusta went from invisible to invincible. Taylor emerged from the background with four straight birdies on the closing nine to overtake Phil Mickelson and barely hold on for a one-stroke victory when Mickelson's five-foot birdie putt rimmed out on the final hole.

"I was just very fortunate for him to not make that putt for birdie there," said Taylor, whose final-round 65 gave him a total of 270, 17-under-par, for his first tour win in 11 years. "You can't ever count him out."

Taylor, less than a month from his 40th birthday, was not counting on doing too much at Pebble Beach, since the strong field included six of the Top 10 players in the world, not to mention Mickelson and two-time champ Brant Snedeker. Taylor was ranked 447th in the world and was lucky to get into the tournament as an alternate, having no status on the PGA TOUR. His victory changed all that.

"Yeah, it's hard to believe," Taylor said of beating a field of world-ranked players – No. 7 Justin Rose and No. 9 Patrick Reed finishing tied for sixth, No. 19 Brooks Koepka eighth, plus No. 3 Jason Day, No. 25 Jimmy Walker and top-ranked Spieth all in the Top 25. "I can't believe it actually happened."

Staying out of the spotlight for three rounds, Taylor opened with 70 at Pebble Beach and was tied for 39th after the first round. He followed that with a solid 4-under-par 68 at Spyglass Hill, moving up to T13, and then sneaked up to T8 Saturday with a 67 at Monterey Peninsula Country Club's Shore Course, far away from the crowds and celebrities – and Mickelson – playing the third round at Pebble Beach.

Taylor began the final round six shots behind Mickelson, the 54-hole leader who was going for his fifth AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am win, hoping to tie Mark O'Meara for most individual victories. And with two previous pro-am team titles, Mickelson would become the winningest player in tournament history.

However, Mickelson – saying he "played a little bit tighter throughout the round" – made two early bogeys at No.4 and No.5, and then lost the lead with a bogey on the 11th. Another bogey on the 14th dropped him two shots behind, where he stayed until a birdie on the 17th put him back in position to tie and force a playoff.

"I hit it left edge and it was rolling there," Mickelson said of the birdie putt on 18. "It didn't quite take the break."

The tournament got the biggest break: warm and sunny weather despite it being an El Nino year. That and having the hottest entertainer in the world – "JT" – attracted 195,000 fans for the week, a record high for attendance. That in turn helped the host Monterey Peninsula Foundation raise a record high of $10.3 million for area charities.

There were records on the course, too, as Sung Kang lit up the scoreboard Friday with his 60, 11-under-par, at Monterey Peninsula Club's Shore Course. Kang, from South Korea, opened with a 31 on the back nine, followed by a 29 on the front, to break the old mark of 61 by Charlie Wi in the first round of 2012.

The celebrity amateur field welcomed several newcomers, including actor Mark Wahlburg (playing with pal Bubba Watson), Major League Baseball commissioner Rob Manfred, pro football star Larry Fitzgerald and baseball all-star Josh Donaldson. Also new this year, 32 celebrities "warmed up" in a $1 Million Hole-In-One For Charity contest Wednesday on the 7th hole at Pebble Beach. Nobody made a million-dollar ace, but country singer Joe Don Rooney earned $50,000 for being closest to the hole in the finals.

Taylor and amateur partner Gregg Ontiveros, the CEO of Group O with a 15 handicap, also captured the pro-am team competition. They finished with a total of 257, 30-under-par, to win by one stroke.

The annual Jack Lemmon Award went to FedEx global executive Donald Colleran, the amateur who helped his team the most. Colleran, a 14-handicap from Memphis, helped 30 strokes for the week, playing with pro Peter Malnati.

LEADERS: First Round – Chez Reavie -8 (63 MP), Freddie Jacobson -7 (65 PB), Cameron Smith -7 (64 MP), Bronson Burgoon -7 (64 MP), seven players tied at -6. Second Round – Sung Kang -11 (132/60 MP), Hiroshi Iwata -11 (66/132 PB), Phil Mickelson -10 (133/65 MP), Freddie Jacobson -10 (134/69 SH), Chez Reavie -10 (133/70 PB), Justin Rose -9

(134/68 MP). Third Round – Phil Mickelson -16 (199/66 PB), Hiroshi Iwata -14 (201/69 SH), Freddie Jacobson -13 (202/68 MP), Sung Kang -13 (202/70 PB), Roberto Castro -12 (203/67 MP), Jonas Blixt -12 (203/67 SH), Chez Reavie -11 (204/71 SH).

CUT: 69 pros made the cut at 214, 1 under par, to advance to Sunday's final round. The pro-am team cut was 198, 17-under par, with the limit of 25 teams advancing (three teams eliminated through the tiebreaker).

COURSE AVERAGES: Pebble Beach 72.654; Spyglass Hill 72.506; Monterey Peninsula 70.699.

WEATHER: Monday through Wednesday sunny, temperatures reaching into the 80s. Thursday sunny, high of 75, wind 5-10 mph. Friday mostly sunny, high of 64, wind 7-12 mph. Saturday fog delayed start of play 30 minutes, followed by mostly sunny, high of 63, wind 10-15. Sunday mostly sunny, high of 69, wind 10-15 mph.

On a weekend when brilliant blue skies rescued the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am from being cursed by five days of rain delays, suspended rounds and unplayable weather conditions, 23-year-old Jordan Spieth shined as brightly as the much-welcomed sun that glimmered across Carmel Bay, as he became the second-youngest winner in the tournament's 77-year history.

The week began with legendary "Crosby Weather," a term that dates back to the first tournament hosted by Bing Crosby in 1937, when rain in the San Diego area limited the competition to only 18 holes at Rancho Santa Fe. "Crosby Weather" followed the tournament to the Monterey Peninsula, where the first year of play in 1947 was doused with rain on Sunday.

But not even Mother Nature could dampen Spieth's hot hand on the normally tricky, frustrating poa annua greens at Pebble Beach, Spyglass Hill and Monterey Peninsula Country Club's Shore Course – the three world-class courses that make up the AT&T Pro-Am rotation.

Needing only 23 putts for a Saturday 65 at Pebble Beach Golf Links – where most of the record-breaking crowd of 125,000 also were having a fun day – Spieth staked himself to a six-shot lead. And then Sunday he hit 17 of 18 greens in a systematic, if not spectacular, 2-under-par 70 to finish at 268, 19-under par, without anyone getting closer to Spieth than three shots all day.

"It's a bucket list type win," said Spieth, (23 years, 6 months), right behind 1981 champ John Cook (23 years, 4 months). "I have read a lot about the Bing Crosby. It's a special golf tournament and an extremely special place for a golfer. The greats of the game all have their names here."

Indeed, the names of Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson, Ben Crenshaw and Tom Kite – all Texans who won at Pebble Beach – hold special meaning to Spieth, whose name stayed atop the leaderboard all day Sunday. With 14 straight pars between his birdie at the par-5 second hole and par-3 17th, Spieth steadily kept his distance from runner-up Kelly Kraft, who closed with a 67 to finish at 272 (15-under), and never felt much heat from two-time AT&T Pro-Am winners Dustin Johnson (273) and Brant Snedeker (274), who finished third and fourth, respectively.

By Sunday the tournament was back on its original time schedule, but like the Super Bowl the Sunday before, it was a battle to catch up all the way.

- Thursday's first-round tee times were moved up an hour to try to finish ahead of a heavy storm, but play was suspended at 1:33 p.m. after only 73 teams finished the first round.
- Play resumed at 8:30 a.m. Friday and the first round was completed at 10:46 a.m., slightly overlapping the start of the second round at 10:30 a.m.
- The second round was halted at 4:21 p.m. because of fog, with only 33 of 154 players completing the round. The second round resumed at 7:30 a.m. Saturday and was completed at 10:14 a.m., again overlapping with the 10 a.m. start of round three.
- With sunshine helping Saturday, the full field completed the third round before darkness.

TV host Carson Daly, a 10-handicap who played junior golf in Southern California against Tiger Woods, won the pro-am with partner Ken Duke. Daly became only the sixth entertainment celebrity to win the pro-am at Pebble Beach, and the first since Bill Murray in 2011. Daly and Duke finished with a total of 254, 33-under-par, to win by two strokes. Daly also won the annual Jack Lemmon Award, which goes to the amateur who helps his team the most. Daly helped 27 strokes for the week.

The celebrity amateurs in the field – which included newcomer Kelly Rohrbach, a swimsuit model and former collegiate golfer – made as big a splash as the weather. Making the pro-am team cut for Sunday's final round were actors Josh Duhamel, Chris O'Donnell and Murray; singers Justin Timberlake and Jake Owen; and sports stars Larry Fitzgerald, Alex Smith, Wayne Gretzky, and Josh Donaldson. Rohrbach, playing with pro Gary Woodland, missed getting into the team tiebreaker by one shot.

For the second year, the $1 Million Hole-In-One for Charity contest Wednesday on the 7th hole at Pebble Beach welcomed 32 celebrities. Nobody made a million-dollar ace, but country singer Colt Ford earned $50,000 for being closest to the hole in the finals.

CUT: 77 pros made the cut at 215, even par, with 65 (low 60 and ties) advancing to Sunday's final round. The pro-am team cut was 200, 15-under par, with the limit of 25 teams advancing (eight of 11 teams at 200 eliminated through the tiebreaker).
